In the event of a diocese being fermed with Cornwall as the see city, it shall be in the power of the Synod to divert the income from Canonry to the Episcopal fund of said diocese so as to make up a sufficient stipend for a Bishop. TORONTO.—The third annual united meeting of the Toronto Bands of Hope, or juvenile branch of the C.E.T.S., took the form of a service held in St. James' Cathedral last week. In previous years a public meeting has been held, and the change has been so satisfactory, especially in point of good order, that the service is likely to become a permanent institution. The schools represented by Bands of Hope were St. James', St. Peter's, St. Stephen's, St. Bartholomew's, Church of the Ascension, St. Phillip's and Grace. The children belonging to the Boys Home and Girls' Home bands sat in the chancel, the others occupied the body of the church, the position of each band being shown by its banner. There were 1,375 children present. They joined in the services very heartily, the children of the Homes leading in the responses. Mr. Wilmot Strathy was organist, and the singing, which was excellent, was led by Miss Dumoulin. The officiating clergy were Rev. H. P. Hobsen, Rev. J. F. Sweeney and Rev. H. Grasett Baldwin. The sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Roy, of Cobourg.

DIOCESE OF NIAGARA.

DIOGESAN SYNOD.—The Synod of the Diocese commenced its sessons on the 29th ult., and closed on the 31st. As in other dioceses the attendance of the laity after the first day was anything but satisfactory, and on the last day of the meeting the matter was brought up by Mr. W. E. Burton, and after an informal discussion to ascertain the views of those preresolution was passed:-

"That a Committee be appointed to take into consideration the question of ensuring a better and more efficient attendance of the laity at the next meeting of the Synod; Synod, in the meantime, declaring itself in favor of each parish paying the actual expenses of the lay delegates when they attend Life. the Synod."

On the last day of the Session the Synod presented the Bishop with an address and a purse of $500 as a small token of their affection and regard, and in anticipation of his wisit to the Pan-Anglican Synod. The clergy and laity in their address say they embrace the opportunity afforded 'to assure his Lordship of the deep respect they entertain for yourself personally, and also their admiration of the untiring zeal and energy with which you have discharged the duties of your high and responsible office during the three years of your able, dignified and impartial manner in which you preside over the counsels of the Church; the fraternal interest you have evinced towards the children of the Sunday-schools, and to sum up all the unsparing devotion of your time, your thoughts, and your substance, to the promotion of the best interests of the Church and her various objects of charity, call forth their grateful acknowledgements. It has been to them a source of anxiety and regret that the Episcopal Endowment Fand remains incomplete, and that it yields an income totally in adequate to the requirements of the Episcopal office, thus entailing a sacrifice of private resources which the incumbent of the See ought never to be called upon to make."

The B shop in his reply, said :-

"Your exteem and confidence and affection are to me personally very precious. In my office as Bishop and for the Church's work I regard them as inestimable. My intercourse with you in your parishes and in your ruridecanal assemblies have been full of encouragement and profit to me. We are learning each other's minds and views under circumstances which render party feeling and divisions well nigh impossible and favor the growth and extension of that complete confidence in each other, and that harmony so essential to our happiness and to the progress of the Church's work. It will be a great joy to me to return to my place amongst you in September with all the valuable experience of a visit to the centres of Church life in England and to the Great Council of the Anglo-Catholic Church. I thank you for your kind wishes for Mrs. Hamilton's restoration to her home with renovated health and strength. I have also to thank you for your substantial token of your affectionate regard. I take this opportunity of informing you that Canon Geddes, Dean of Niagara, has consented to act as my commissary from June 8, until my return."
