

IMITATION

Is sometimes called the sincere form of flattery. This may account for the number of imitations of the original and only positive corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. All such fail to possess equal merit, so when purchasing get the genuine "Putnam's." Safe, sure, and painless. All druggists.

One of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is, because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, for the past two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." Sold by all Druggists, 50c. and $1.00

A Merchant writes: "Minard's Liniment has saved many from a terrible death here, as diphtheria, has been very prevalent. Minard's Liniment cures it every time when taken internally and externally. For Congestion and all Throat and Lung disease it is equal to a doctor in the house."

G. W. Winans, statesuperintendent of the schools of Kansas, 21 years ago worked as a laborer in excavating for the foundation of the building in which he now holds, worthily, an honorable office.

THAT OLD "BACH" AGAIN.

An old bachelor asserts that the best and quietest way to revive a lady when she faints is to begin to take down her hair; if it aint her own she will grab it in a jiffy. A better way to stop fainting and to produce Hair of her own is to use Minard's Liniment.

To do wrong is to inflict the surest injury on our own peace.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous, kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books upon this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style, in the best sense. We commend it most heartily to every Clergyman for personal help and parochial use. We would, if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured, that once begun, it will be read with interest from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.—Church Record.
