VEGETABLE MEDICINES.

By a species of instinctive feeling, the people of nearly all countries are greatly averse to those med-icinal preparations which contain mineral substances amongst their ingredients. And yet, if the question was asked why they objected to this class of medicines, we presume few could give an intelligent answer. Nevertheless, the aversion is well founded.

All mineral substances, when taken into the stomach, are cumulative in their nature—that is to say, they remain either partly or whelly in the system at 3.00 a.m. mach, are cumulative in their nature—that is to say, many cases the result is death.
