should blame her though, for I have been rude enough in my day, and have no wish to renew my intercourse with her. I suppose the searct of it is, that true politeness must be founded on some firmer basis than the mere desire to keep up ones character for a more desire to keep up ones character for a howladge of the requisitions of society. mere desire to keep up one a constanter for a knowledge of the requisitions of scolety. How I wish it were possible to get into the country without driving through these hate-

And the next moment, as a gentleman in passing tilted his bat to her (a tall, slight man with dark eyes, whom Maggie could not help remarking for his elegant appearance), Lady Ethel, flushing scarlet, desired the coachman to turn at once into a by-road and take them anywhere, by any route, so that take them anywhere, by any route, so that abe might be spared the worry of these con-

But that night, when she was laid in her bed, and Maggie stooped to give her a last kies, she found her cheek was wet. stant recognitions. "Dear Ethel! what has happened to disturb you?" "Oh-nothing! do not think of it-only that man (you saw him, Maggie) who bowed to me at the corner of Hyde Park this afternoon, he is the occasion of all my misery; it was tor him I quarrelled with my husband, and now I hate the very sight of him. I wish that I wink never as him more. that I might never see him more. O Thomas ! O my darling ! when will you come back to

And Maggie spoke dear words of comfort to her, as she always did, promising a future of happiness if Ethel would but seek it in the way appointed; then crept to her own room, but no: without a tear (for if the memory of but not without a tear (for if the memory of her past was laid to sleep with holy words, it was not quite forgotten), and soothed her heart by praying that all those she loved might yet be re-united, and at peace.

But Mrs. Bainbridge was getting clamorous that Maggie should return to Cranshaws.

She was desirous to remove thence, and would not let a case be packed until she had the assistance of her niece.

Her last few letters had been filled with plaintive inquiries as to the probable dura-tion of her absence, and Maggie had experienced no small difficulty in concealing her demands from Lady Ethel. by whom she felt the news of her impending departure would be received with the deepest lamentation. But the country letters generally arrived about the time that they had breakiast; and one morning, as they were sitting in the dining-room together, the intelligence conveyed to Maggie by her aunt was too important not to be inferred from the rapid change of her countenance. "What is the matter?" exclaimed Lady

Ethel; "you have had bad news." "Oh, no; I hope not," said the other, try-ing to speak cheerfully; "but my aunt has had a letter from Calcutta."

"From Calcutta !" "Now, don't be frightened, darling ! really it is nothing, only Aunt Lizzie is so nervous and so easily alarmed. She has heard from Cousin Thomas: he was quite well when he wrote (remember that), had made a good passage, and arrived in Bengal safely; but he found orders waiting for him to proceed immediately up country, and could not atay in Calcutta long enough to receive our

"But why—why go up country?"
"Why, his battery is up country, you little goose, and they wanted him. There had been a slight rising amongst some of the hill tribes in the north provinces (they are always rising up there), and Cousin Thomas wrote that he was likely to have some skirmishing, at which Aunt Lizzie says he seems uncommonly delighted; but, of course, like most mothers, she is horrified at the mere name of fighting, and faucies all sorts of coming trouble. But that arises from her overweening love for him."

They are going to fight?" The voice seemed so unlike Lady Ethel's voice, that Maggie looked up, quickly. There she stood, having risen from her chair, grey as ashes, and trembling in every and

Would you have a soldier for a husband and not let him ply a soldier's trade! What nonsense! Rouse yourself, my dear! You are | cine of Queen's College and the Royal Uniworse than even poor Aunt Lizzie."

She spoke sharply; and went up to her as she spoke, and took her roughly by the hand. "Ethel! you will make me angry in a minute! This is perfect folly! I never should have told you, except as an excuse for the news that I must leave you. Aunt Lizzie wants me to go home."

But the beautiful, pleading face, that, amidst all the knowledge of the world, had retained so much of childlike innocence in player its expression, was lifted to her own; and Maggie felt her powers of resistance ebb

"Oh, do not leave me! and just now too. I could not bear the suspense by myself; it would kill me !"

"What can I do, dear? I don't want to go ; but Aunt Lizzie has great claims on me, and I have been here a month, and she is anxious that I should return. Do you think I live to leave you, my dear sister?" "Take me with you," whispered Lady "To Cranshaws? Would you like to go?" "If she-his-his mother will receive me. Do you think she will?"

"I do not think, Ethel, I am sure of it." "What, after all? Oh! if she would-if she would let me stay near her. I fancy by her side I could be patient, whatever happens. O Maggie !" with clasped hands, "for God's sake, tell me that he will come back

How can I tell you, my darling? But of one thing I am certain, that God will give him back to you; and if you have to wait, Ethel, until you meet him in another world, remember that we all deserve less at His hands than we receive. But, now, if you have quite decided to go back to Cranshaws with me, we must write to Dr. Chalmers, and ask his opinion on the subject.' The physician caught at the idea : country air was all his patient needed to restore her to her usual health, and he could advise nothing that was likely to do her greater good. The only stipulation which he made was that the long journey should be broken by a night's rest at York, which gave Maggie time to prepare her aunts for the reception of their unexpected visitor; and though she had kept them well informed of all that had occurred in Curzon street, and the love which Lady Ethel had evinced for horself, it must be confessed that the proposition of her advent struck Mrs.

Bainbridge with dismay:
"Lady Ethel coming with her! and when I wanted Maggie just to help us in the packing! This is very awkward, Letty; it will turn the house all topsy-turvy again,"

"Oh! I hope not, Elizabeth. You see how affectionately Maggie writes of Lady Ethel; and how well they seem to agree I hope we may find her much changed for the better."

"Fond of Maggie she evidently is," said Mrs. Bainbridge; "but who could help being fond of Maggie—especially when she had nursed them through an illness? But that, in all probability, will only make Lady Ethel oling to her the more; and, perhaps, mono-polise her services and her society. J'Xou remember how selfish she was with poor dear Thomas."

(To be continued. The second sections

Sketches of the Irishmen who play Canada's National Game on the Old Sed.

The following is a list of the Belfast team, is a member of the Ards Lacrosse Club. He plays centre, and has a good reputation for speed and dexterity. He is always on the move, and his sudden darts here and there are a feature of his play. He has played for Ireland vs. England, 1883, 1885; vs. Canada, 1883; vs. Iroquois Indians, 1883. He is well known as a good all-round athlete, and atands in the front rank of Rugby football players.

Inhitia. Beauty Feaver (8)

He may Feaver (8)

Is a member of the North of Ireland L C. He plays on the defence field, in which position he is a cross check, possessed of tremendous right and pertinectly. He is a very fast ranger and a safe throw. He was a member of the front rank of Rugby football players.

Inhitia. Beauty Feaver (8)

is a member of the Rugby Lacrosse Club. a rising member. He plays in the attack field, and is noted as a strong and fast runner; is a splendid man in a hard game, being possessed of great physical power and determination. He dodges is a very promising goalkeeper. He is parwell and is a fair shot at goal. He has not played for Ireland v. England, though once throw. He has never previously played in chosen.—He played for Ireland v. Unit with an international tratch, but has twice repre-district.

Stuart C. Kelly (1) is a member of the North of Ireland L.C. He | is one of the most popular men in athletic plays in the centre field, where he can always direles. be relied on. He is a steady player, with any amount of endurance. He is a fast runner. He has never proviously played in an international match, but has been a member of the two N LLU champlonship teams, and is as the proviously played. who are now in this city, with brief sketches of their athletic records:

"W. A. Wheeler (I)

is a member of the Ards Lacrosse Club. He is a brother of the field captain, H. C.

known as a good all-round athlete, and atands in the front rank of Rugby football players. He is a B.A. of Trinity College, Dublin, a student and scholar of Queen's College, Belfast. He is relebrated in lacrosse games for his peculiar war cry.

"Rebert Nelson (2). The property of Rughering, a profession of which he is releined member.

Malculm Macdonald (9)

reputation, being the best half back in the progress. Sinclair is also a past International Association Football man, and a vice-president of the Irish Football Association. He is a member of the North of Ireland L.C. He plays in the attack field, where he is a sure man in every way, is a fine dodger, and noted as the personification of easy froid. He was a member of the two N.I.L.C. champlorship teams. He has played for Irefand v. England, 1884, 1885. He is a very fast man, and is noted as a first-rate half-back in Rugby football. He is also a brilliant cricketer, in which game his whole family have made for them. game his whole family have made for them-selves reputations. He is at present a law student of T C.D., and is noted as one of the best amateur swimmers in Ireland, and as a long distance diver has few equals.

John McLeish (14)

is a member of the Down Athletic Club. He plays paint or cover pout, and in either po-attion is a very sure player. He is a brilliant dodger, and a part-cul-rly close check. He has few superiors in clearing the goal at the most critical moment. He is a long and cer tain throw. He has previously played in one international match, namely, Ireland va.
England, 1885, and has twice represented his county. He is also a medical student of Queen's College and the Royal University of Ireland.

Those marked with an asterisk played against the Canedian lacrosse town in 1863.

AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

SHORBURYNESS, August 12 -The Canadian Artillery team to-day won the first prize for the best score in shooting with 64-pounders, winning the Londonderry cup. They also won the Governor-General's cup for shifting ordnance, which was the cup won by the first Canadian team which competed at Shoebury-ness. The cup was given by the Governer-General of Canada, and is for dismounting a 64 pounder gun, moving it to another car-riage, and remounting it thereon.

RELIGIOUS PROFESSION.1

On Tuesday a religious profession was held at the convent of the Sisters of Notre Dame of St. Croix at St. Laureut. The following young ladies took the veil; Miss Mary Moriarity, in religion Sister St. Monique; Miss Almolde Lavarier, Sister Jean Vieu; Miss Georgina Trudeau, Sister Proceede; Miss Marie Georgina Trudeau, Sister Proceede; Miss Marie Georgina Trudeau, Sister Froscode; Miss Marie Georgina Trudeau, Sister Froscode; Miss Marie Georgina Trudeau, Sister Froscode; Miss Marie Louise Bourdon, Sister St. Falu de la Croix; Anna Vaillancourt, Sister St. Paul de la Croix; Anna Vaillancourt, Sister St. Virginie; Marie Louise Dagensis, Sister St. Annelme; Augele de Mercci Robert, Sister St. Claire; Rose Mathilde Tourangeau, Sister St. Claire; Bose Mathilde Tourangeau, Sister St. Beneit; Delphine Dagensis, Sister St. Bernard; Janette Chisholm, Sister of the Precious Blood; Rose de Lima Georgeon, Sister Ste. Helene; Agues Dagensis, Sister Ste. Clotilde; Virginie Lafteche, Sister St. Damien; Adelia Parissau, Sister Ste. Melanie.

TALKING COERCION.

WHAT THE IRISH PEOPLE MAY EX PECT FROM THE SALISBURY GOVERNMENT.

The Tory Premier Continues His Ravings Against Self-Government for treland-His Speech at the Lord Mayor's Banquet.

London, Aug. 11.—A banquet was given by the Lord Mayor this evening. The usual loyal toasts were responded to. Sir A. P. Caron, Canadian Minister of Militia, who responded to the toast of the army and navy, refered amid loud cheers to the Canadia assistance sent to Egypt. Lord Salisbury, who was heartily cheered on rising, congratu-lated those present on the result of the eleclated those present on the result of the elec-tions. He expressed his pleasure at Lord Rosebery's consistent continuance of a tor-eign policy that raised England in the esti-mation of nations whose people were yearly showing a growing desire for peace, which would be maintained if rulers were guided by their peoples' will. He regretted that there still remained

A SUBJECT FOR PAINFUL MEDITATION. A SUBJECT FOR PAINFUL MEDITATION.

"Every day news," he says, "reminds us that Ireland is not yet inhabited by a concordant and homogeneous people. It is too early to enter into details, but it is the duty of every government to devote its whole energies to freeing the loyal people of Ireland from the constraint exercised upon them, whether in the form of riot or in the more dangerous, insidious and effective form of dangerous, insidious and effective form of outrage and intimidation. While admitting the great difficulty and responsibility of the task-which are so great that previous governments, equally anxious with ourselves, only succeeded temperarily and to an imperfect extent—we possess an advantage over our predecessors which we hope to turn to good use. We bear a mendate from the people deciding finally and, in my opinion, irrevocably the question which has

WRECKED THE PEACE OF IRELAND (Cncers). The question of an independent Government in Ireland, after deep discussion and advocacy by the most powerful statesman this country has ever seen, has been rejected emphatically and unequivocally by an enormous majority of the people of the kingdom. (Loud cheers.) It is unworthy to remark that most of the voices in favor of separation have been obtained by the personal influence of this great satesman and upon other considerations apart from the merita of the question. I believe that our opponents will eventually admit that this is England's final decision, armed with which it is our duty to restore in Ireland that social order, the loss of which is the only just cause of its discontent. I am convinced that in such a policy we shall find the strong-est support in the enormous population of which you are true representatives.'

A BARCASTIC OPINION. The Daily News, commenting on Lord Salisbury's speech, says:—"Lord Salisbury's speech fails to give promise of a smooth course in Parliament. It showed only too plainly that in his opinion the only measure for Irish disorder is a good dose of drastic coercion.

LONDON, August 11 .- All the new ministers have now been re-elected to the Commons, unopposed. The withdrawal of Ald. Cook, Liberal candidate against Matthews in the East district of Birmingham, is said to have been due to the Radical union's opposi tion aroused by Mr. Cook's correspondence with Mr. Arthur Chamberlain.

DERRY BREAKS LOOSE. RIOTOUS PROCEEDINGS AT AN ORANGE PRO-CESSION.

LONDONDERRY, Aug. 12.- During a procession of Orangemen through this city to-day two bottles, filled with gunpowder, packed around lighted tuses, were cast into the ranks at different points along the line. Both bottles were smashed before the lights could reach the powder, and the lights were quenched. When the nature of the allair became generally known among the Orangemen, they became greatly excited. The Orangemen were also attacked while they were parading on the famous promenade made by the old town walk. Here they were openly and savagely stoned by a mob. Rev. Thomas Olphert, indirectly related to Mrs. Robinson, who Canon of the Episcopal Cathedral, and several citizens were wounded. The excitement is reaching a dangerous height. LONDONDERRY, Aug. 12.—Mr. McClintock, the Orange Grand Master here, in a speech to-day, ridiculed the story that the Orangemen originated the riots, and said that when required to fight the leaders would supply their men with better ammunition than brickbats.

LONDONDERRY, August 12.-The city is quiet to-night,

IRISH LOYALIST DELEGATIONS TO VISIT AMERICA.

DUBLIN, Aug. 11.—The Dungannon Pa-triotic Union will send a deputation of Loyal ist orators to the United States and Canada to address public meetings throughout both countries in the interest of the Irish opposition to home rule. The orators will leave Ireland as soon as Parliament adjourns in the fall, and among them will be Major E. J. Saunderson, Tory member for North Armagh, and Mr. Russell, M.P. for Tyrone.

The steamer Sarmatian, which will sail from Liverpool for Quebec and Montreal on the 27th inst., will take a deputation from the Ulster Anti-Repeal Union, consisting of the Rev. Mr. Kane, Orange Grandmaaster Hill, and Mr. Smith, a barrister, for the purpose of explaining to their brethren in Canada and America the Irish loyalist cause.

If you had taken two of Carter's Little Liver Pilla before retiring, you would not have had that coated tongue or bad taste in the mouth this morning. Keep a vial with you for occasional use.

THIRTY KILLED AT BELFAST. LONDON, Aug. 12.—Credible information places the total number killed during the riots in Belfast at 30. The number of wounded is enormous, and will probably never be Horsford's Acid Phosphate In Debility.

Dr. W. H. HOLCOMBE, New Orleans, La., says: " I found it an admirable remedy for debilitated state of the system, produced by the wear and tear of the nervous energies."

LONDON, Aug 10 .- Mr. T. D. Sullivan, Parnellite member of Parliament, at the fortnightly meeting of the National league here to-day made a speech in which he maintained that until tenants in Ireland had sufficient food and clothing for themselves and families their landlords could not have a just claim to rent. Mr. Sullivan counselled the Irish people to act according to the law of selfpreservation which, he reminded them, was the first law of nature. The Belfast rioting, he argued, was based upon prejudice and feelings that had grown up under the encoursprinters, and holds the champlon belt for ith poor dear athletics of the Queen's College. He is a student and scholar or Queen's College.

Are a lingify football player he has a high time it is need.

THE VISITING IRISH LACROSSE TEAM.

versity of Ireland.

John Blow (3)

is a member of the R. A. Institution Lucrosse Club, one of the most promising clubs in the Union. He plays in the attack field, where his great speed is of special service. He dodges well, and is a good throw. He is one of our younger players, and has not previously played in international or county matches. He is player.

*Alexander W. Child (4)

is a member of the North of Ireland L. C. He plays point, in which position he has few equals. He has the reputation of being a very determined player, and very strong throw. In a close contest, his nerve and coolness are invaluable, and he lets very few shots pass him. He has played for Ireland v. England in 1884 and 1885; for Ireland v. Canada, 1883, v. Iroquois Indians, 1883, and v. United States, 1884; also for United Kingdom v. United States, 1884. He has been a member of two championship teams. He is the hon, secretary of the Irish Lacrosse Union, and has the record of being a fair Rugby football player, He is the tallest man on the team.

*Hugh C. Kelly, (5)

field captain of the Irish team is a member tired from active play, but was, when in the field, a good centre, extremely dodgy and hard to get round. He played for Ireland vs. England, 1881, 1882, and against Scotland, 1879. He was a well known Rugby football player and captain of the international team, and as a brilliant forward, possessed of great physical powers, he had few equals. By his exertions he has contributed largely to the present success of Irish lacrosse, having given it the help of his great influence at a time when the game was less known than now. He was, with J. Sinclair, one of the chief organizers of the reception of the Canadian team in 1883 and the United States team. 1884. He is again, with Sinclair, the organizer of the present tour, and to his energy, push and influence the undertaking owes most of its present success. Kelly, as a field captain, is universally popular for his invaluable cheeriness and good humour. He is a fair cricketer hounds. Yachting and shooting also receive his enthusiastic support, and in all branches of sport and athletics, as well as in the social world, his popularity is unbounded.

Robert Montgomery (6) is a member of the North of Ireland L. C. He plays "second home," and is the fastest man of the lot; also a good dodger and hard shot at goal. He has played for Ireland v. England, 1883, 1884, 1885; for Ireland v. Iroquois Indians, 1883; and v. Canada, 1883; also for Ireland and for United Kingdom v. United States, 1884. He is at the present time one of the best short distance Irish sprinters, and holds the champlon belt for voice, that Maggie looked up, quickly. There she stood, having risen from her chair, grey as ashes, and trembling in every timb.

"Ethel! you will never be so foolish as to worry yourself for a little thing like this.

Would you have a soldiar for a husband and world you have a soldiar for a husband and soldier. 1883; v. Iroqueis Indians, 1883; also v. | sen'ed his county. He was captain of the game, his strength and muscle being invalu- ball player, and he, too, is a member of an able in the mall. He is a student or medi- athletic family.

John F. Glbb (10)

is a member of the Rugby Lacrosse Club. He plays in the defence field, in which position he is absolutel, unrivalled in the three kingdoms. He is a very fast runner, beautiful dodger and good throw. He is noted for extreme coo'n se in even the most exciting contests He has played for Ireland v. Eugland, 1882 1883, 1881 1885; has also played for Ireland v. Canada, 1883, and v. Iroquois Indians, 1883, and v. United States, 1884; also for United Kingdom v. United States, 1884. He has also played on two championship teams. He is well known in athletic circles in Ireland as a fast man at 100 and 440 yards flat, and also as a steeplechaser. He has played fr quently for Ireland in international fartball matches under association is a member of the Down Ataletic Club. which, under its original name of Knock LC. was the first lacrosse club formed in Inland. He is one of the original pioneers of the game in Ireland. He is about the het goal keeper in the three kingdoms, bed a noted for his skill in getting his charge free of danger at the critical moment. He is a good dodger, and the lengest throw on the team. He has played against England in every match, viz-1881, 1882, 1883, 1884 and 1885; for Ireland v. Scotland, 1878; for United Kingdom v Cauada, in 1883, and v. United States, 1884; also for Ireland v. Canada, 1883, v. Iroquois Indians, 1883, and v. United States, 1884. He can play point on the team when necessary. He has been a member of two championship teams. He is also known as an International Association football player, and has played for Ireland four times in this game. Like several other members of the team, he is a student of the Royal University of Ireland, from which he holds the degree of B.A. He is also a scholar of Queen's College, and acts as assistant hon, sec. of the present John Sinclair (12 member of the North of Ireland Club, by far the best "first home" in the three kingdoms, is a brilliant player, dodges well, and shoots tremendously hard. He has no equal here for presence of mind, quickness and dexterity, and may be said to have developed the presand good numour. He is a rair cricketer; and may be said to have developed the pre-and lawn tennis player, and one of the pro-minent figures of Belfast society. He is the sub-sheriff of County Down, and a first-rate billiard player. As a genuine sportsman, he is well known with the County Down stag Scotland, 1879; for United Kingdom vs. Scotland, 1879; for United Kingdom vs. Canada, 1883, and vs. United States, 1884; for Ireland vs. Canada, 1883, and vs. Iroquois Indians, 1883; United States, 1884. In addition he has been a member of four teams which have won the championship of Ireland. He is one of the original Irish lacrosse players who began the game after the Canadian visit of 1876, and has done more for its progress and present success than any other man. He, with Kelly, was chief organizer of the receptions of the Canadians in 1883, and the United States team of 1884. Dill and he are the two remaining members of the Knock L. C.; the first club formed in Ireland. He was the promoter of the present flourishing N.I.L.C.

'Alexander II. Dill (11)

A VENERABLE NUN.

BRAZIL CAN BOAST OF THE OLDEST SISTER OF CHARITY IN THE WORLD.

The Messageries Maritimes ocean steamer,

which left Bordeaux recently for Brazil, includes amongst its passengers eight Sisters of Charity, who are accompanied by two Lazarist Fathers. One of the Sisters is the Visitress of the Order for the provinces of Rio, Bahin, te. This venerable nun entered her nine tieth year last month. The voyage which she has undertaken is the fiftieth which she has made to South America since 1848, when she introduced the Sisters of Charity into Brazil for the first time. She has for herself passed nearly forty years of her long life in that country. Reverend Mother Dubost is a native of Paris. Having embraced the religious life at the age of nineteen, she has now been seventy years in the Order. After the noviti te she was sent, in 1819, to labor in an orph rage for abandoned girls at Ver-sailes; and since that period she has worked zer-loudy and untiringly in orphanages and in hospitals in the hot Brazilian climate, having lef her post but five times to make, in the mo her-house in France, the Retreats pre cribed by the rule of her Order. During the visit to her native land, which has just terminated, Mother Dubost paid a visit to The sileged cause of his death was overheat the scene of her early labors at Versailes, and drinking ice water. His life was inwhereshe had the happiness of meeting several sured in the New England Relief Association seven years ago. These are now aged grand ciation refused to pay the money to seven years ago. These are now aged grand widow. The case is now before the Supreme mothers; and their emotion on seeing the court. It is stated that when any of Mrs. had exerted so elevating an influence over their lives may easily be imagined. Mother | cian was never called twice. Dubos' is still hale and vigorous; and on her arrival in Brazil she intends to visit the houses of the Order in three provinces before she settles down at her usual residence in Rio Janeiro.

IT NEVER FAILS.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry will never fail you when taken to cure Dysentery, Colic, Sick Stomach or any form of Summer Complaint. Relief is almost instantaneous; a few doses cure when other rem-

MGR. WALSH ON IRISH AFFAIRS.

Dublin, Aug. 11.—A lengthy interview had by Mr. T. P. Gill, M P., with His Grace Archbishop Walsh is published, in which the learned prelate gives his views on the Irish land question. His Grace is of the opinion that Home Rule must be speedily granted to Ireland, and it would not surprise him if it came from the Tories. Regarding the land question, His Grace considers it a mistake to view it from either a religious or political light: it is purely a commercial matter. The landlords as a class are demanding higher rents than the tenants as a class can pay, and mand has reduced the rents, land legislation in Ireland has not brought about a similar reduction. The rapacity of the landlords, in His Grace's opinion, is largely, if not entirely, the root of the present difficulty.

JUST THE THING.

W. J. Guppy, draggist, of Newbury, writes : "Dr. Fowler's Wild Strawberry is just the way, and I can highly recomme thing for Summer Sickness. I sold out my icine to all suffering as she did." stock three times last summer. There was a good den and for it." Dr. Fowler's Extract

AN AMERICAN BORGIA. ARREST OF A MASSACHUSETTS WOMAN FOR WHOLESALE POISONING TO OBTAIN

Somerville, Mass., August 12 .- Mrs. Sarah Robinson, who was arrested yesterday for attempting the death of her son by administering poison, was arraigned in court this morning. The boy has since died, and the charge against her is now wilful murder. An examination has shown conclusively that poison was administered. It is understood the police have information of the suspicious death of at least eleven persons directly or were insured in benefit organizations. The money in most cases fell into this woman's hands. Thomas R. Smith, her supposed accomplice, was also arrested and bailed. He has reported to the police that since the death of Mrs. Robinson's husband eleven of her relatives have died, all within four years. These include children of Mrs. Robinson and others she had care of Most of them were insured. On the death of a father or mother she would take charge of the children, and sa the insurance money came due to the children, she, it is alleged, would put them out of the way. Her husband died very suddenly four years ago. for two cr three thousand dollars. The asso-Robinson's family were sick the same physi-

A MAIL FRAUD PUNISHED AT MIL-WAUKEE, WIS. Everyone should remember that the presence of Gens. Beauregard and Early at the Drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery having entire charge, is a guarantectaf absolute fairness and that the chances of all are equal. and that no human being can know beforehand what number will draw a prize; therefore, any party advertising to guarantee prizes in the drawings of The Louisiana State Lottery, or holding out other inducements impossible to carry out, is a swindler and a cheat. Money sent in answer to such advertisements is obtained with a view to deceive and defraud the unwary. To do the right thing address M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. One of these swindlers, Robert Riley, alias W. Huber & Co., was sent to prison for ten months at Milwaukee last month, and it known exactly. served him right.

Before the ports of Japan were opened to the Christian nations of the world there were only eleven intoxicating drinks known in the country; now there are more than two hundred, and many horrible vices peculiar to while in England the law of supply and de- highly civilized nations are becoming com mon in Japan.

A PLEASING DUTY.

"I feel it my duty to say," writes John Borton of Desert, P.Q., "that Burdock Blood Bitters cured my wife of liver complaint, from which she had been a chronic sufferer. Her distressing, painful symptoms soon gave way, and I can highly recommend the med-

The English war department has succeeded