

A man complaining of a sunstroke was asked what he meant, as he looked in good health. 'Twin boys, by the favor of my wife,' he answered.

'Ain't it wicked to rob die chicken roost, George? 'Dat's a great moral question, Sam, we ain't got time to argue it now—hand down another pullet.'

'Did any of you ever see an elephant's skin,' asked the master of an infant school. 'I have! shouted a six year old at the foot of the class.—'Where?' inquired the teacher, amused by his earnestness. 'On the elephant!' was the reply.

Sir John Mason (born in the reign of Henry VII., of England), held the office of privy councillor to four successive sovereigns, viz., Henry VIII., Edward VI., Mary and Elizabeth. Having thus greater opportunities than fall to the lot of most men, he made mankind his particular study, and noted the vicissitudes of the times. On his death bed, calling his friends and relatives around him, he thus addressed them: 'Lo! here I have lived to see five monarchs, and have been councillor to four; I have seen the most remarkable things in foreign parts, and been present at most State transactions for thirty years past; and after so much experience, I have learned this: that seriousness is the greatest wisdom; temperance the best physician; and a good conscience the best estate. And were I to live again, I would exchange the court for a cloister; my privy councillor's toils for a hermit's retirement; and the whole life I have lived in a palace for one hour's enjoyment of God in my closet. All things forsake me but my God, my duty, and my prayers.'

THOUGHTS FOR YOUNG MEN.—Costly apparatus and splendid cabinets have no magical power to make scholars. In all circumstances as man is, under God, the master of his own fortune, so is he the maker of his own mind. The Creator has so constituted the human intellect, that it can grow only by its own action, by which it must certainly and necessarily grow. Every man must, therefore, in an important sense, educate himself. His books and teachers are but helps; the work is his. A man is not educated until he has the ability to summon, in case of emergency all his mental power in vigorous exercise to effect his proposed object. It is not the man who has seen the most, or who has read the most, who can do this; such a one is in danger of being borne down, like a beast of burden, by an overloaded mass of other men's thoughts. Nor is it in the man that can boast merely of native vigor and capacity. The greatest of all the warriors that went to the siege of Troy had not the pre-eminence because Nature had given him strength, and he carried the largest bow, but because self-discipline had taught him to bend it.

The sky is the only thing that Truth can see from the bottom of her well.

Divine justice steals upon us softly with woollen feet, but strikes us at last with iron hoofs.

REV. AMOS BLANCHARD, Meriden, N.H., writes:—'I think very highly of Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Zylbalsamum. Both myself and wife have used them with the most satisfactory results.' These preparations are exported largely to Europe, and have a world-wide reputation. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 198 Greenwich st., N.Y.

Advertising for a wife is just as absurd as it would be to get measured for an umbrella.

Men look at the faults of others with a telescope—at their own with the same instrument reversed.

A PERPETUAL DELIGHT.—'Flowers have their time to fade,' says a favorite poet; but in MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER their sweetness is made perpetual. The odor of other toilet-waters becomes faint and insipid after a brief exposure to the air. It is not so with this exquisite floral preparation. Its perfume is fixed and permanent.—Hang a handkerchief that has been moistened with it in the breeze for days, and the aroma will be as delicate and refreshing at the end of the time as if the fluid had just fallen upon its threads. This is not the case with any foreign extract, nor with any other American perfume.

Purchasers are requested to see that the words 'Florida Water, Murray & Lanman, No. 69 Water Street, New York,' are stamped in the glass on each bottle. Without this none is genuine. 522 Agents for Montreal:—Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. Campbell & Co., J. Gardner, J. A. Harte, Picault & Son, H. R. Gray, J. Goulden, R. S. HEREDITARY DISEASE.—The lives of thousands are blighted by hereditary scrofula. Yet it is curable. An alkali does not merely neutralize an acid than BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA deprives the scrofulous and syphilitic virus of its sting. It is the only antiseptic which will arrest ulcerous maladies of the virulent class, and prevent the possibility of their being transmitted to the next generation. The patient is cured constitutionally, and becomes as sound in every fibre, as though he had never known disease. Of course, to effect so great a change, it is necessary to continue the use of the SARSAPARILLA a number of months. BRISTOL'S VEGETABLE PILLS should at same time be used in moderate doses. 514 Agents for Montreal, Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. Campbell & Co., J. Gardner, J. A. Harte, H. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—'We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as 'bright as a button.' And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever.

Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle. July, 1866.

GREAT TRUTHS IN A SMALL COMPASS.—The substance of volumes of medical advice may be compressed into a sentence, thus: Keep the digestive organs in a vigorous condition, the bowels regular, and the liver fairly up to its work. But how to do this is the question. Puzzling as it may seem, every man and woman who is acquainted with the virtues of BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS, can answer the query promptly. Their extraordinary properties cover the whole ground. Is the stomach weak and apathetic?—They give it vigor and activity. Are the bowels constricted?—They relax and regulate them. Is the liver sluggish or congested?—They bring it back to its duty. It is their office to restore the system to a natural condition, without undue force, without suffering, without any revolting nausea, and they do it. Many complaints of the organs referred to are complicated with disorders that affect the skin, the muscles, the flesh, and the glands.

In all such cases, the great detergent, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA, will expedite and complete the cure. The Pills are put up in glass vials, and will keep in any climate. All respectable druggists keep both medicines. 423 J. F. Henry & Co. Montreal, General agents for Canada. For sale in Montreal by Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. It can be obtained everywhere at one dollar per bottle. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

S. T.—1860.—X.—The amount of Plantation Bitters sold in one year is something startling.—They would fill Broadway six feet high, from the Park to 24th street. Drake's manufactory is one of the institutions of New York. It is said that Drake painted all the rocks in the Eastern States with his calcestrite "S. T.—1860.—X." and then got the old grumpy legislators to pass a law "preventing disfiguring the face of nature," which gives him a monopoly. We do not know how this is, but we do know the Plantation Bitters sell as no other article ever did. They are used by all classes of the community, and are death on Dyspepsia—certain. They are very invigorating when languid and weak, and a great appetizer. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

'In lifting the kettle from the fire I scalded myself very severely—one hand almost to a crisp. The torture was unbearable. The Mexican Mustang Lintiment relieved the pain almost immediately. It healed rapidly, and left very little scar.' CHAS. FOSTER, 420 Broad St., Philadelphia. This is merely a sample of what the Mustang Lintiment will do. It is invaluable in all cases of wounds, swellings, sprains, cuts, bruises, sprains, etc., either upon man or beast. Beware of counterfeits. None is genuine unless wrapped in fine steel-plate engraving, bearing the signature of G. W. Westbrook, Chemist, and the private stamp of DEMAS BARNES & Co., New York. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

All who value a beautiful head of hair, and its preservation from premature baldness and turning gray, will not fail to use Lyons celebrated Kaitation. It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy, eradicates dandruff, and causes the hair to grow with luxurious beauty. It is sold everywhere. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

WHAT DID I DO?—A young lady, returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in New York, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a ruddy, flushed face, she had a soft, ruby complexion, of almost marble smoothness; and instead of 22, she really appeared but 17. She told them plainly she used Hagan's Magnolia Balm, and would not be without it. Any lady can improve her personal appearance very much by using this article. It can be ordered of any druggist for only 50 cents. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

Heimstreet's Inimitable Hair Coloring has been steadily growing in favor for over twenty years. It acts upon the absorbents at the roots of the hair, and changes it to its original color by degrees. All instantaneous dyes deaden and injure the hair. Heimstreet's is not a dye, but is certain in its results, promotes its growth, and is a beautiful Hair Dressing. Price 50 cents and $1. Sold by all Dealers. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF PURE JAMAICA GINGER—for Indigestion, Nausea, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, &c., where a warming is required.
