THE

OVERLAND MONTHLY.

ONLY LITERARY

MAGAZINE

PACIFIC COAST.

THE OVERLAND, 1886-1887.

THE OVERLAND MONTHLY, established in 1868, has always been recognized as one of the great magazines of America. Its literary qualities are unique, and the steady and rapid progress it is making proves that the Pacific Coast is loyal to its famous periodical; nevertheless, it is not local; its literature is universal; it wins and keeps a place in the home circle and the library; its circulation is largely in the Mississippi Valley, in the Atlantic States, and in Europe. Every intelligent American should include this magazine in his list for 1887. Libraries, Reading Rooms, Clubs and Literary Societies find it one of the best read of their magazines.

The managers of the OVERLAND MONTHLY offer to the public their patient, painstaking effort to develop the best and most characteristic literature of the West. They find that the magazine is making friends everywhere, and that its circulation is steadily increasing. They are now able to announce the incorporation of a strong company of capitalists and literary men to carry the magazine forward to a still greater success.

RECENT COMMENTS.

"One might as well compliment the Century by comparison with the OVERLAND as vice versa."—Boston Traveller.
"For comprehensiveness of scope, soundness of thought and high literary quality, the OVERLAND is not surpassed by the best of the Eastern monthlies."—Worcester Spy, Mass.
"One of the best monthlies is that which comes from across the continent."—Philadelphia Press.
"The great and representative magazine of the far West. The periodical is edited with catholic taste, and it has an admirable corps of contributors. Its pages are on every subject, and they have full as much literary value as those of any magazine published east of the Rockies."—Albany Argus, N. Y.
"The OVERLAND is unique in having all its articles full of general interest, so that whoever takes it will be likely to read everything in it."—The Critic, New York.
"Edited with a good sense and discrimination which are gratifying. The whole magazine is readable to a high degree."—Congregationalist, Boston.
"Sustains the high literary reputation won long ago by this companionable and ever-welcome magazine. The articles are short, pithy and thoroughly attractive."—Interior, Chicago.
"The OVERLAND is devoted to the intellectual and moral development of the Pacific Slope, and reflects the influence of its best elements."—Philadelphia Ledger.
"Represents the best literature of the western half of America."—North British Mail, Glasgow.
"Equal in every respect to our best English magazines."—The Gazette, Alexandria, Egypt.
"Its high literary standard, the dignified and moderate temper it has always maintained, its policy of impartial hearing of both sides, and its absolute independence of any private or party interests, make it a peculiarly influential organ."—The Week, Toronto, Canada.
"One of the great American magazines."—London Athenaeum.
"On a basis of originality and individuality that makes it a unique magazine in the periodical world."—American Register, Paris.
