

ARTICLE IX

Six months from the coming into force of this Agreement and every six months thereafter the Governments will communicate with each other in order to examine the working out of the Agreement. For this purpose the German Government as soon as possible will furnish the Government of Canada with a statement of the foreign exchange certificates which have been granted during each six months period.

ARTICLE X

In the event of the economic benefits anticipated by both Contracting Parties on concluding the present Agreement not being attained or in the event of either of the Contracting Parties considering itself at a disadvantage through developments unfavourable to its interests or through the adoption by the other Party of measures of an economic nature, either of the Contracting Parties may request that negotiations be commenced without delay with a view to effecting a mutually satisfactory adjustment of the matter. If such negotiations should not lead to a satisfactory settlement within four weeks from the date of receipt of the request, the Party which considers itself at a disadvantage shall have the right to terminate the present Agreement six weeks from the date of the receipt by the other Party of notification of termination.

ARTICLE XI

This Agreement shall come into force on November 15, 1936, and shall be binding for a period of one year from the date of coming into force, subject to the provisions of Article X. In case neither of the Contracting Parties shall have given notice to the other, two months before the expiration of the said period of one year, of its intention to terminate the present Agreement, it shall remain in force thereafter until the expiration of two months from the date on which either of the Contracting Parties shall have given to the other notice of its intention to terminate the Agreement.

In any event this Agreement shall cease to have effect from the date of the termination of the Trade Agreement concluded on this day between Canada and Germany.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed this Agreement.

Done in duplicate at Ottawa, in English and German texts, both authentic, this twenty-second day of October, 1936.
