

X

For the United States of America :

Signature of this Convention for and in the name of the United States of America constitutes, in accordance with its constitutional processes, signature also on behalf of all territories of the United States of America.

The United States of America formally declares that the United States of America does not, by signature of this Convention on its behalf, accept any obligation in respect of the Telephone Regulations or the Additional Radio Regulations referred to in Article 12 of the Buenos Aires Convention.

XI

For Greece :

The Hellenic Delegation formally declares that in signing this Convention it maintains the reservations made by Greece when the Administrative Regulations mentioned in Article 12 of the Buenos Aires Convention were signed.

XII

For Guatemala :

The fact of signing this Convention in the name of the Republic of Guatemala does not impose any obligation on my Government to ratify it as a whole, in its final form and in its application, it being understood that the National Congress of my country can make such reservations as it may judge necessary at the time of ratification.

* * *

I declare in the name of my Government that it will not accept any financial repercussions that may result from the reservations made by countries participating in this Conference.

XIII

For the Hungarian People's Republic :

When signing the International Telecommunication Convention, the Delegation of the Hungarian People's Republic states the following :
