

6. Each competent authority will subsequently determine the applicant's eligibility and notify the other authority, through the liaison agencies, of the benefits, if any, granted to the applicant.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Paragraph 6

Medical Examinations

1. The liaison agency of one Party will, to the extent permitted by the legislation which it administers, provide, upon request, to the liaison agency of the other Party such medical information and documentation as are available concerning the disability of a claimant or beneficiary.
2. If the competent authority of one Party requires that a claimant or a beneficiary who resides in the territory of the other Party undergo an additional medical examination, the liaison agency of the latter Party, at the request of the liaison agency of the first Party, will make arrangements for carrying out this examination according to the rules applied by the liaison agency making the said arrangements and at the expense of the agency which requests the medical examination.
3. The amounts due as a result of applying the provisions of subparagraph 2 will be reimbursed without delay on receipt of a detailed statement of the costs incurred.

Paragraph 7

Forms

The liaison agencies of the Parties, with the consent of the respective competent authorities, will agree on the forms necessary to implement the Agreement and this Administrative Arrangement.
