

ARTICLE 2
OBLIGATIONS OF UNHCR

1. UNHCR shall provide within existing resources the RCMP officers with appropriate office space, equipment, support staff, IT and telecommunications equipment, transportation and other support necessary to carry out the tasks assigned to them in Guinea.
2. UNHCR shall cover:
 - (a) Costs incurred by the RCMP officers undertaking official travel in the discharge of their functions on the same basis as costs incurred by staff members;
 - (b) Costs incurred by the RCMP officers with respect to their Residential Security Arrangements (as per existing UN rules & regulations);
 - (c) Operational project expenditures within the limits of existing allocated country-level budgets;
 - (d) One-time Vacation Travel Allowance up to a maximum sum of $3,901.41 (Canadian dollars) as already established by the Government of Canada's Military Foreign Service AirFare schedule.
3. UNHCR shall provide the RCMP officers with pre-deployment operational briefings and general orientation in Geneva and in Ottawa.
4. UNHCR shall not accept any liability for claims for compensation in respect of illness, injury or death of the RCMP officers arising out of or related to the provision of services under the present agreement; except where such illness, injury or death results directly from the gross negligence of the officials or the staff of UNHCR. Any amounts payable by UNHCR shall be reduced by the amounts of any coverage under the insurance referred to in article 1, paragraph 3, of the present agreement.
5. UNHCR shall make available to the Government of Canada operational reporting related to the function of the RCMP officers and the issue of refugee security within Guinea and the region, during the period of the present agreement.
