*OLYMPIC GAMES—FOREIGN HEADS OF STATE AND DIGNITARIESQuestion No. 2,334—Mr. Schumacher:

Has the government made any arrangements, or are they planning any arrangements, for the (a) transportation to Canada and return (b) accommodation (c) hospitality (d) transportation in Canada, of any foreign Heads of State or dignitaries in connection with the Olympic Games in Montreal in 1976 and, if so (i) what is the nature, or projected nature of such arrangements (ii) what is the projected cost in each case?

Hon. Allan J. MacEachen (Secretary of State for External Affairs): It is not the intention of the government to invite dignitaries of other countries to visit Canada as official guests at the time of the Olympic Games. If such persons decide to come to Canada to attend the Games, the government will regard their visits as private. It will, however, take measures for the security of such visitors and show them appropriate courtesies. In answer to the specific questions, (a) no transportation to Canada and return will be provided; (b) no accommodation will be provided, but the government has offered assistance in finding appropriate accommodation; (c) no decisions have been taken regarding hospitality; and (d) automobiles and drivers will be provided for heads of state and certain other categories of dignitaries. It is proposed to have a budgetary item of $200,000 for protocol expenses in connection with the Olympic Games. This would include the cost of providing automobiles and drivers, liaison officers, some hospitality and other protocol expenses. It is impossible to make a precise estimate of the costs to be incurred, since the number of visitors and the length of their stays in Canada are not known.
