UPDATING OF SNAVELY REPORT

Question No. 2,700—Mr. Mazankowski:

1. Is the government updating the study originally commissioned by the government to Mr. Carl Snavely into the actual costs of moving grain and, if so (a) what is the name of the person or firm hired to conduct the study (b) on what date did it commence and what is the expected completion date (c) what is the anticipated or final cost (d) in which year does the update apply?

2. Did the Prime Minister on February 13, 1981 state "We have made a decision not to deal with the Crowsnest Pass freight rates until there is a very strong demand from the representatives of western farm groups and other groups to touch the Crowsnest rates" and, if so, in light of the statement and in light of the government's current fiscal restraint program, for what reason is the government proceeding to contract out a study to update the actual costs of moving grain, which will touch upon the Crowsnest Pass freight rate?

Mr. Robert Bockstael (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Transport): 1. Yes.

(a) Snavely, King, Harris and Associates, Inc.

(b) May 1, 1981—started; December 31, 1981—completion.

(c) $155,500 (final cost).

(d) 1980.

2. Yes. In relation to western railway capacity and the railway financial situation it is important to have accurate, up-to-date figures on losses related to statutory grain rates. The current study will maintain the three-year update interval and will be directly comparable to the two previous studies. The study will also identify changes in railway system efficiencies that have occurred since 1977 update.

LOCK BOXES IN POST OFFICES

Question No. 3,004—Mr. Cossitt:

Does the government intend to extend the leases for box holders who had boxes in locked box lobbies closed during the 1981 postal strike for the same number of days as the length of the strike in order to compensate the box holders for money paid to the government for a service not available to them and (a) if so, on what date will this be announced (b) if not, for what reason?

Mr. Gary F. McCauley (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Consumer and Corporate Affairs): Instructions were issued by Canada Post that leases for boxes in lock box lobbies closed during the 1981 postal strike were to be extended in accordance with the Manual of Financial Procedures, Part III, Chapter 19, paragraph 16 (2) (a) and (b), which are as follows:

16. "(2) In such cases the rental period may be extended

(a) by one month if the elapsed time is from 15 to 30 days' duration only; or

(b) by one month for each 30 days of elapsed time and an additional month for the remaining elapsed time, provided it exceeds 15 days."

(a) No announcement was necessary because all customers who qualified were given the above-mentioned extension.

(b) Not applicable.
