

Royal Assent

I ask Conservative Members across the way to respond to me. We are dealing with 1,100 employees who will lose $10 million collectively and this is no laughing matter. In the case of Canadian Arsenals, the Government backed down. In the beginning, the Government even forgot it had employees at Canadian Arsenals, but gradually it came around, recognized the mistake and amended the Bill. The Government changed the process completely after report stage and finally gave the employees what was theirs.

Let us be perfectly clear. We are not asking for any presents. We are simply asking that these employees be able to leave with what is in their own pension fund. They worked hard for it like everyone else. I suppose I will have to continue my remarks another time.
