

worthy of consideration and support.

It is difficult to over estimate the value to the world of the type of men which life under these hard conditions develops. As a recognition of the splendid services rendered by the men of this Coast during the Great War, the Navy League of Canada last year made a substantial gift to Dr. Grenfell for the maintenance of his work. The object of the mission from the beginning and its policy throughout has been to help these people help themselves.