

me a line, to say you will come, I hope.

I am only now getting back "to Earth" after a wonderful trip and it just occurs to me to enclose a clipping covering to some extent, observations made to Mr. White and which he wished to have published.

Sincerely hoping you can come for a game, and in any event to see you soon

I am very truly yours

D. D. Hanna