Dear Sir Arthur.

I enclose a letter which reached me a day or two ago & which I thought might interest you. If the pistols are in good condition and really did belong to Wolfe, I should like to have them at McGill - presumably in the McCord Museum, which, as you know, already has a good collection of Wolfe relics. Would Mrs. Learmouth buy the ^{pistols} pictures for us, do you think? Of course, if we don't want them, the Ottawa people would probably take them,
