

2. To oppose the dissemination of doctrines contrary to those authoritative standards of our Church; and to resist all unauthorized changes or innovations in her services as prescribed in the Prayer Book; and all novelties in vestments, decorations or practices, whether revived from pre-reformation times, borrowed from the Church of Rome, or introduced as rites and ceremonies hitherto unknown amongst us as a Church.

3. To cultivate an earnest spirit of brotherly union in accordance with the Apostolic precept; "that there be no divisions among you: but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment," and so to foster hearty co-operation in all efforts for the spread of the Gospel, the extension of the Church, the enkindling of a devoted missionary spirit among its members, and the maintenance of the doctrines for which so many noble martyrs of our Church, Bishops, Clergy and Laymen, witnessed a good confession in the dungeon and at the stake.

4. To diffuse information on all subjects specially affecting the welfare of the Church, and to aim at uniting all her members in a hearty and uncompromising maintenance of our most holy faith:
