What other Power can object to Proceedings fo abfolutely neceffary to Our own Defence and Security ? My Good Brother, the King of Sain, fees with Concern thee Differences; and the Part which He generoufly takes in the Common Welfare of Europe, makes Him earneftly with the Prefervation of the Publick Tranquility. He has alto given Affurances, that He will continue in the fame Pacifick Sentiments.

In purfuing there great Ends, I make no Doubt of the vigorous and chearful Support of My Parliament; and that, whilt I am engaged in this Jut and National Cause, the affectionate Affurances which they gave Me the lat Seffion, will be effectually made good. In Consequence thereof I have greatly increafed My Naval Armaments; augmented My Land Forces in foch a Manner as might be the leapt burthenfome; and have concluded a Treaty with the Empress of Ru/ja, and another with the Landgrave of Heffe Caffell, which hall be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Officers to lay before you Estimates for the Service of the enduing Year, and likewife Accounts of the extraordinary Expences which have been made this Year, in Purfuance of the Power given Me by Parliament. I fee, with great Concern, that the neceflary Services before mentioned will require large Supplies. I ask only fish as shall be requifite for the effectual carrying on of thole Meafures, which hall be necef fare to fupport what has been begun, according to your Inclinacion, for the Security of My Kingdoms and Dominions, and for the Purpofes which have been already mentioned to you. Whatever you grant, hall, with the ftricteft Oeconomy, be applied to thole Ufes only for which it Shall be given.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I rely upon your Duty and good Affections, which I have fo often experienced. There never was a Situation in which My Honour, and the Effential Interefts of Great Britain, called more ftrongly for your Zeal, Unanimity, and Difpatch.
