SOME CANADIAN ARTISTS AND THEIR WORK.

G. A. REID, R.C.A.

Drawn from life by F. S. Challoner.

WE cannot claim to have established in Canada a school of art like that of Tuscany or Umbria. We have been too busy a people for that, and this is too utilitarian an age. We have exchanged the patronage of the Popes and Grand Dukes and the adornment of churches and palaces for the patronage of the people, and the modest adornment of their homes. Civic decoration is almost unknown. With the exception of Mr. Reid's mural paintings in the City Hall, Toronto, and
