

CHAPTER IX.

OF GENERAL UNIVERSITY MEETINGS AND OTHER MEETINGS IN UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS.

1. In the case of all General Meetings, appointed by the University, the Principal, or, in his absence, the Vice-Principal, shall have power to make such arrangements and to secure such assistance as he may deem necessary for the preservation of order, subject to the approval of the Governors as to any expense that may be involved.

2. The Principal may, if necessary, call upon the Deans of the several Faculties, or, in their absence, any of the Professors of such Faculties, to co-operate with him in the preservation of order.

3. In case of any disorder at such meetings, the Principal and the Deans of the Faculties shall form a court of inquiry to ascertain the offenders: and they may either remit the dealing with such offenders to the Faculties to which they belong, or may report to the Corporation.

4. The right to grant permission to use any building of the University, or any part thereof, shall be vested in the Committee in charge of such building, or where no such Committee exists, in the Faculty in charge thereof: provided that nothing herein shall be held to derogate from the power of the Corporation or the Board of Governors to grant such permission.
