
FOURTH WEEK.

DUTY—THE IMPERFECT MOTIVE.

Duty at best is an imperfect motive to act upon. It enables us to find the Right, but never the Beautiful. Love is the only impulse to perfect action. Failing that, take Duty as the first step (so far it is infallible). But never rest till what is done is done for more than Duty.