

of Quito, 398. Defeats his brother Huascar, and usurps the empire of Peru, 399. Visits Pizarro, 402. Is perfidiously seized by him, 404. Agrees with Pizarro on a ransom, 405. Is refused his liberty, 408. A form of trial bestowed on him, ib. Is put to death, 411.

Audience of New Spain, board of, established by the emperor Charles V., 383. Courts of, their jurisdiction, 507.

Azores, those islands discovered by the Portuguese, 41.

Balboa, Vasco Nugnez de, settles a colony at Santa Maria, in the gul' of Darien, 142. Is appointed lieutenant-governor of the countries on the South sea, and marries Pedrarias's daughter, 153. Is arrested and put to death by Pedrarias, 154.

Bark, Jesuit's, a production peculiar to Peru, 522.

Behring and Tschirikow, Russian navigators, thought to have discovered the north-west extremity of America from the eastward, 191.

Benalcazar, governor of St. Michael, reduces the kingdom of Quito, 413. Is deprived of his command by Pizarro, 428.

Benjamin, the Jew of Tudela, his extraordinary travels, 28.

Bethencourt, John de, a Norman baron, conquers and possesses the Canary islands, 31.

Birds, an account of those natural to America, 185.

Bojador, cape, the first discovery of, 35.

Bovadilla, Francis de, is sent to Hispaniola to inquire into the conduct of Columbus, 113. Sends Columbus home in irons, 114. Is degraded, 116.

Brazil, the coast of, discovered by Alvarez Cabral, 112.

Burial of the dead, American mode of, 268.

Cabral, Alvarez, a Portuguese commander, discovers the coast of Brazil, 112.

Cocoa, the best in quality, produced in the Spanish American colonies, 522.

Cañes, the galleons and flota removed thither from Seville, 526.

California, the peninsula of, discovered by Fernando Cortes, 384.

Campeachy, discovered by Cordova, who is repulsed by the natives. 172.

Canary islands erected into a kingdom by pope Clement VI.—are conquered by John de Bethencourt, 31.

Cannibals, no people ever found to eat human flesh for subsistence, though often for revenge, 244.

Canoes, American, the construction of, described, 253.

Caraccas, establishment of the company trading to that coast, 531.

Caribbee islands discovered by Columbus in his second voyage, 87.

Caribbees, their spirit peculiarly fierce, 77.

Carpini, his extraordinary mission to the prince of the Tartars, 27.

Carvajal, Francisco de, contributes to Vaca de Castro's victory over young Almagro, 436. Encourages Gonzalo Pizarro to assume the government of Peru, 416. Advises Pizarro to assume the sovereignty of the country, 449. Is seized by Gasca, and executed, 459.

Centeno, Diego, revolts from Gonzalo Pizarro to the viceroy of Peru, 447. Is defeated by Carvajal, and secretes himself in a cave, 448. Sallies out and seizes Cuzco, 456. Is reduced by Pizarro, 457. Is employed by Gasca to make discoveries in the regions about the river Plata, 460.

Charles III. king of Spain, establishes packet-boats between Spain and the colonies, 532.

Charles V., emperor, sends Roderigo de Figueroa to Hispaniola, as chief judge, to regulate the treatment of the Indians, 162. Causes this subject to be debated before him, 166. Equips a squadron at the solicitation of Ferdinand Magellan, 373. Resigns his claim on the Moluccas to the Portuguese, 376. Appoints Cortes governor of New Spain, 378. Rewards him on coming home—establishes a board called the Audience of New Spain, 383. His consultations on American affairs, 437. Establishes new regulations, 440.