

RY AND EVANS.

edges,

ENTS.

N, R.N.

s of Drawings pur-k of them have been coloured after the ori-n number, are accu-

facsimiles of illustrait has come upon the a Japan who can draw our of Richard Doyle.
s quite a relief to the which abound at this the drawing-rooms of rice 5s. 6d.

ONS.

ANACKS,

L.

f a cunning hand, as Almanack," in which would rather say, the ory. The works of a un will live for ever;
these Almanacks for anifest improvement

FOR 1861.

R MOVEMENT) by JOHN LEECH

R 1861.

J. KEENE.

No. 11, BOUVERIE STREET, FLEET STREET, E.C.

January, 1861.

WORKS PUBLISHED BY BRADBURY AND EVANS.

"ONCE A WEEK."

* * THE SILVER CORD, a new Serial Story by SHIRLEY BROOKS, with Illustrations by JOHN TENNIEL, is now in course of publication. A number of "Once a Week" is published every Saturday, price 3d.; also in Monthly Parts and Volumes. Vols. I., II., and III., price 7s. 6d. each, are completed.

In One Vol., post 8vo, with Map, price 10s. 6d.,

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES.

BY N. A. WOODS, ESQ.,
THE "TIMES" SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

In square 16mo, price 7s., gilt edges,

JAPANESE FRAGMENTS.

BY CAPTAIN SHERARD OSBORN, R.N., C.B.

* * This Work is illustrated with Facsimiles of Drawings purchased by the Author in the City of Yedo. Six of them have been reduced by the new patent process of the Electro Block Company, and are coloured after the originals. The Wood Engravings, twenty-two in number, are accurately traced from the Japanese drawings.

In One Volume, post 8vo,

HEALTH, HUSBANDRY, AND HANDICRAFT.

BY HARRIET MARTINEAU.

[In the Press.

In Three Vols., post 8vo, price 11. 11s. 6d.,

EVAN HARRINGTON;

A NOVEL.

BY GEORGE MEREDITH.

A PRESENT FOR ALL SEASONS.

Now complete in One Volume, cloth gilt, price 5s. 6d.,

PUNCH'S TWENTY ALMANACKS

FROM 1842 TO 1861.

"It was a happy notion to reproduce a volume of these Almanacks for the last twenty years, in which we can trace their manifest improvement up to Christmas, 1860."—The Times.