

taken (one drachm), an eruption appeared on the body and extremities looking very much like urticaria. Distinct wheals were seen, but there was not much itchiness. Successive crops of these urticarial

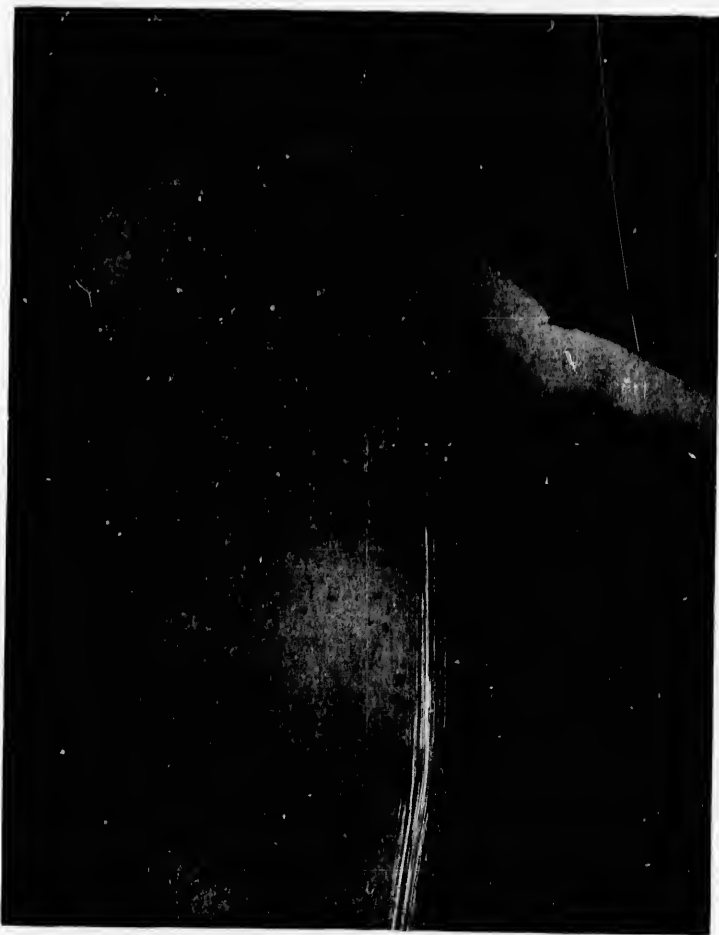

FIG. 1.

spots coming out, the administration of the drug was discontinued. The spots now became petechial, and were raised above the surface