

specially provided for by these Rules, be subject to all the ordinary Rules and By-Laws of the Battery, and all the requirements of the Militia law of the Province.

OF REGULATIONS FOR ORDERLY ROOM.

RULE XXII.

Section I.—No books, papers, furniture, or other property of the Battery, shall be torn, defaced, or injured.

Section II.—Spitting on the floor strictly prohibited.

Section III.—No intoxicating liquors, cards, or boxing gloves, or any kind of gambling, allowed in the rooms at any time.

Section IV.—The rooms shall not be open on Sundays or Battery Drill nights, unless by order of the Captain.

Section V.—No person shall be allowed to enter the room at any time in a state of intoxication.

Section VI.—The rooms to be closed at 11 o'clock, p. m., except nights of monthly meetings.

Section VII.—Any member violating any of these Rules, and being reported by the committee, will forfeit his membership, unless excused at a regular meeting of the Battery.

RULES OF ORDER.

RULE XXIII.

Section I.—At every meeting of the Battery, the order of business shall be as follows:

- 1.—The chair to be taken as per By-Law 2nd.
- 2.—The Clerk to call the roll.
- 3.—The minutes of previous meeting read and approved, if correct.
- 4.—Fines, fees and dues to be collected.
- 5.—Proposals for membership.
- 6.—Report of Investigation Committee for membership.
- 7.—Ballot for membership.
- 8.—Elections and appointments.
- 9.—Reports of Committees and unfinished business.
- 10.—New business, Resolutions, Notices, Communications, &c., &c.

Section II.—The Presiding Officer shall state every question or motion from the chair, and, before putting to vote, shall ask, Is the Company ready for the question? If no member rise to speak on it, the question shall be again stated, after which no discussion will be permitted. He shall always announce the result, which, if appealed from, shall be decided by the Vice-chairman putting the question, Will the Company sustain the Chair?