

Article VI.—ELECTIONS AND AMENDMENTS

SEC. 1. Nominations for officers and members of the Executive Committee shall be made in the following manner:—At the February Business Meeting of the Society, a Nominating Committee shall be formed consisting of two members of the Executive Committee previously appointed by that body and not candidates for office, and of three members of the general Society appointed by the floor. They shall have power to elect their own Convenor. At the first meeting in April, the Committee shall present the names of one or more candidates for each vacant office, having beforehand secured from each one her consent to stand for office. Nominations from the floor may also be made at this meeting. At the Annual Meeting, names so proposed, together with those presented by the Nominating Committee, shall be ballotted for in the usual manner.

SEC. 2. No member of less than two full years' standing shall be eligible for office on the Executive Committee.

SEC. 3. No office except that of Treasurer may be held for more than two consecutive years. No member having served in any capacity on the Executive Committee for four consecutive years shall be eligible, during the following year, for any office except that of President.

SEC. 4. All officers and members of the Executive Committee shall be elected for their full term of office.

SEC. 5. The constitution may be amended at any business meeting of the Society by a two-thirds vote of the members present, two weeks' notice of the proposed amendment having been given.
