Note and Comment

The weatherman will likely keep to-night's friendly games off the list. Also there can be no more District Cup-curling for a day or two. However, everyone is hoping for keen ice for the Tankard games that begin next Tuesday.

There was an unsatisfactory ending to the wrestling bout last night; that is, supporters of the man declared the losers are not satisfied, Therefore, ac-cording to the traditions of the game, the pair must be matched over again.

An old Toronto boy writes from Chicago of the indoor track meet there last Saturday night, to draw attention to the great showing that one of our old boys made, viz.. Epa McGee. In the last week he finished second twice. He started three times, won three second places, and they all hold him in high respect. He is a dangerous man at the game. He is now weighing close 1, 235 bbs.. and looking the picture of health. It is too bad he never started this before, instead of rowing and boxing. The only thing he says he misses is the rowing. There is no place to do anything in that line in Chicago. McGee sends his regards to all his Toronto friends.

Fight critics from Rochester, Utica, Baltimore and Buffalo who witnessed the Billy-Allen-Abe Attell bout all credited Allen with having more or less of shade on Attell. Attell will undoubtedly seek a return match. No decisions are allowed in New York State, and thus the following opinions of the critics are valuable:

S. Clifford Sterrett, The Rochester Democrat and Chronicie; "I think that Allen was entitled to the shade, because he was the more aggressive."

Leo, Rochester Times: "I give it to Allen, but I don't think that Attell was as good as he used to be."

Harry Cohen, sporting editor of The Syracuse Journal: "Allen's fight all the way."

Charlie Huck, the dopester of The Syracuse Journal: "Allen's fight all the Syracuse Journal."

Charlie Huck, the dopester of The Syracuse Journal: "Allen's fight, undoubtedly." donbtedly."
C. Beckett, Syracuse Herald: "Allen is entitled to credit for shading Attell. He finished fast and landed the cleaner Cullen, sporting editor of The Post Standard, said that he thought Allen could not be given worse than a draw, if not a slight shade.

The Chicago Examiner gives it to Allen by a shade.

A track team who has been entered for the indoor meet at Buffalo on Jan. 8, is in great shape. Halbaus has been running in particularly good style on the Varsity track, and if his man beats him he will have to go very fast. Tresidder never was better, and Bonhag will have to run the best three miles of his career to beat the Central crack. A large crowd will accompany the boys, and Manager Brydon has been very fortunate in securing a block of seats right at the finishing line, which he will sell to those purchasing excursion tickets for the sum of 25 cents.

Wanderers at Strollers. Tankee Rogers put ever another of his bag of tricks on the sporting public of Toronto last evening at Riverdale Rink, when he met Dr. Roller in their catch-ascatch-can bout, best two in three falls. It didn't happen to be the trick rib this time, but was the ignorance of a wrestler of many years' experience as to what constitutes a strangle-hold, after agreeing that the strangle should be barred. After the Yankee's last appearance, when he worked the trick rib, the public had pretty nearly formed their opinion of what would happen, and the rink was plenty large enough to hold the crowd, which numbered about 600.

Before the main bout started Lou Marsil announced that the only hold barred was the strangle. For an hour and seven minight the Aberdeens were shooting in their old time form, totaling 2698, and to break it at the command of the referee. Police Inspector Miller then interfered to break it at the command of the referee. Police Inspector Miller then interfered the latter's floor. The checking on both sides was hard, and the game was a hummer from start to finish.

In the Athenaeum Association last the Aberdeens were shooting in their old time form, totaling 2698, and winning two from the Atkins' Colts. Billy McMillari was there with a big 630 count, The scores follow:
