An interesting fact revealed by the report upon the jall maintenance is that bread today costs a fraction over four and one-half cents per pound, while in 1905 each pound cost only two and a half cents. Butter, tea, pepper and several vegetables now cost twice as much as they did fourteen years ago.

"Rickety, rick! Rickety rick! Rickety, roo!
Rickety, rickety, roo!
We are the boys of the L. C. I.
Who in h— are you?"
Chanting this and several other hattlecries, hundreds of pupils of the Collegiate Institute marched to Tecumseh Park this afternoon to participate in their annual field day sports. Down Dunglis strees they came, bubbling over with enthusiasm. Why shouldn't they be on this THE day of the school term, a day when Latin, French and all other studies were forgotten entirely. a day when Latin, French and all other studies were forgotten entirely.

Determined to keep the purple and gold at the top of the mast, and fired by the cheers of from one thousand voices, the school rugby team came on the field in their multi-colored suits to do battle with the St. Thomas C. I. squad. No less determined were the girls to win the basketball match from the fair sex of the Railway City.

As keen as the school spirit, was that of the various forms. Each class sought to take as many prizes as possible, for

I. Hellmuth, K.C., of Toronto, will act for the plaintiffs. The injunction against the city is to have quashed the street railway by-law which permitted the increase of fares from seven tickets for 25 cents to six tickets for the same amount.

AWARDS ANNOUNCED SEVERELY INJURED IN FALL FROM LOFT

James Pearse in Hospital With Hurt Spine.

As a result of a fall from the hayloft at the rear of the Black Bell inn, corner of King and Talbot streets, while helping to unload some hay at 10 o'clock this morning, James Pearse, 312 Ottaway avenue, lies in Victoria Hospital suffering from a severely injured spine. At first it was feared that his back had been broken, but the attending physicians say that no bones were broken. Some straw on which he fell helped to avert an immediate fatality. Mr Pearse returned from overseas but a short time ago, after serving almost three years.
