NOTE AND COMMENT

To-day marks the start of the season in iceracing. The Dufferin Driving Clubhas three well filled races on the card with the track at the park thoroly frozen over and genuine winter sport will be in order. The horsemen will be able to get their first line on the condition of the old ones and the calibre of the new ones that are going down the ice circuit.

The practise hockey season is on, Mutual-street Rink announcing the hours for the clabs to take their first work. From the long list it would appear that the Bankers and the T.A.A.C. would have the new Excelsior pretty much to themselves and there's sure to be lots of good hockey at both.

JUST MISSED WARRANT.

Alexander Nelson, Hotel Proprietor, Re-manded on Charge of Assault.

As the crown officers were about to issue a warrant yesterday, Alexander Nelson appeared in court just in time to answer a charge before Judge Winchester of assaulting Francis Lee Keilty, a C. P. R. brakeman. The trouble occurred in the Subway House, of which Nelson is proprietor, and arose when Kielty atempted to stop accused from abusing his wife.

The complainant said Nelson threw bottle at him, which smashed the glass in the door and afterwards kicked him. His honor allowed Nelson out on his own bail, to appear for sentence at drunk or abuse your wife in the mean-time, I'll send you for a term in the Central Prison," cautioned the bench. Nelson promised to be good.

points out that players are ruled off too numerous to count and still the slaughter goes on. Ellminate the team penalty and substitute rules to read:

1. Any player committing a deliberate foul shall be ruled out of the game and a substitute be allowed to replace him.

2. Players who engage in a quarrel on the ice that involves them in a fight with sticks or fists, shall be ruled out of the game and substitutes allowed to replace him.

3. In the event of less serious offences, as:—a trip, cross-check, hooking, or shortending with the but of the stick, the referee shall warn the offending player once and for the second offence, rule him out of the game and permit a substitute to replace him.

In explanation of the above suggested rules, it is obvious the best men composing the team are sent out at the beginning of a game. It is also reasonable to believe a player will refrain from deliberately fouling a man when he knows the penalty is not a few minutes on the bench, but a compete elimination from this game. The penalty therefore becomes a personal matter to the player, who will probably have to give an accounting to his club management, be he a hired professional. The hockey meeting of the Toronto Amateur Athletic Club was held at the clubhouse last evening. It was decided to have an intermediate O.H.A. team in addition to the senior seven in the Interprovincial League. There is a strong probability that a senior team will also be entered in the O.H.A.

The following hockey committee was elected: Percy Quinn chairman; J. B. McArthur, secretary; J. C. Sherry, E. J. Livingstone, R. A. Laidlaw.

The club league committee will be composed of Roy Clarke, E. C. Campbell, C. S. Brent, and H. J. Loye.

Guy Clarkson was appointed manager for the intermediate team. A manager for the senior team will be apopinted later.

The captains will be elected by the teams before their first game.

There is an abundance of material in sight and it is hoped to make a good showing.
