APPEARS WITH LITTLE ORPHANS

The Platform Was Fitted Up as a Stage, When Her Own Drama Was Presented.

Miss Booth gave two short addresses in part one, the first on "The Scarlet Thread" and the second on "The Scarlet Thread" and the second on "The Army's Accomplishments." These were given in the same strong, poetic and womany manner that marks all Miss Booth's addresses and work. The scarlet thread was taken as indicative of Christ's life and death.

The members elected were Miss Johns, Mrs. MacIntyre, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. R. A. Farquharson. Miss Bastedo. Mrs. Co.

roduces many of the more prominent persons that figure in the novel. While "Vanity Fair" is filled with matters of minor interest, the prime interest of the novel attaches to Becky, and those concerned in her adventures. Thus, a play devoted to Becky and to them practically exhausts the prime dramatic material in the novel. "Vanity Fair," as its name indicates, describes worldly persons and their weaknesses, their strength for good or evil, and their successes or defeats as they are deserved. It is a story with a strong moral, yet is one of the most fascinating stories ever written. Becky is the very soul of it, and necessarily Becky is the very soul of the play, "Becky Sharp." The action of Lillard, who is an ardent supporter of Gov. Goebel, aroused intense indignation among the Republicans, and it was declared that a detachment of soldiers would be sent to the penitentiary to take the man away by force if Warden Lillard persisted in his refusal to release Hayes. No such talk, however, came from the office of Gov. Taylor, or that of Adjutant-General Collier. The talk was naturally resented by the Democrats, and Lillard persisted in his refusal to release Hayes. No such talk, however, came from the since the shooting of Governor Goebel there were to-day signs of a peaceful, settlement. The board now became exceedingly generous and large-hearted, and on motion the chief inspector will be granted an increase of $300 per year. The junior inspector also had his salary increased by $250 per year. Miss E. Edwards of the inspector's department likewise had her salary raised to $600 per year. Mr. James Burns, the accountant, will in future receive $1050 per year, and the secretary-treasurer, stenographer and the stenographer of the superintendent of buildings' department, were granted $25 each per year increase. The drill instructor was given $50 per year more. The proposition to make the maximum salary for the 15th year's service $660 instead of $636 was thrown out. Taylor, the Republican Governor Alleged, Asks the President Washington, Feb. 1.—President McKinley has received a long message from Gov. W. S. Taylor of Kentucky, dated to-day at Frankfort. Gov. Taylor recites at length the situation in Kentucky, declares that he considers himself the legally-elected executive of the State, and asserts that the condition of affairs at the present time is most critical. He says that a riot may occur at any time which will cause much bloodshed. Gov. Taylor says that he is doubtful of his power to control the situation, and appeals to the President to end the matter and secure peace in the State by recognizing him as the Governor of Kentucky. The appeal is very earnest, and the aid of the Administration is urgently requested. to Recognize Him.
