UNITED STATES TROOPS ARRIVE

The officers and crew of the fighting ships that moved beside them or swept free the sea lanes before them as they pushed on through the days and nights toward the danger zone where German submarines lay in wait, every precaution that trained minds of the navy could devise was taken. And the news from France today shows that the plans were well laid.

The war department has no announcement to make as to General Pershing's disposition of his forces; presumably that has been left to him to decide, in conference with the French general staff and officials of the British army.

The American troops will be an independent force co-operating with the allies. It has been suggested that the Americans might be placed between the French and British forces as a connecting link, but the exigencies of the planned campaigns will govern that question.

INTENSE ENTHUSIASM

A French contingent, June 27.—The second contingent of American troops arrived and disembarked this morning. The troops landed amid the frantic cheers of the people, who had gathered for hours before in anticipation of duplicating yesterday's surprise. Enthusiasm rose to fever pitch when it was learned that the transports and

Lost the Use of Right Hand

From Extreme Nervous Exhaustion—Had Doctored for Years for Thin Blood, and is Now Fully Restored.

St. Thomas, Ont., June 27.—There has been much comment here on the cure of Mrs. Bremner, who suffered for years from extreme nervousness, and almost entirely lost the use of her right hand.

Thin blood had been the cause of trouble, and the nervous system had become starved and exhausted until paralysis seemed the only result to expect. But a friend recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and the astonishing results are described in this letter.

Mrs. C. Bremner, 14 Arthur avenue, St. Thomas, Ont., writes:

"I had doctored for some time for a weakness of my right hand, and years for thin blood. I doctored for years for this latter, and all my trouble seemed due to this. My nerves were so bad that I was afraid to stay alone, and if I had to stay up late at night to complete any work I was doing I would keep some of the children up with me. I used to have some of the most hideous dreams, and would wake up in great excitement. I tried a great many remedies without benefit. My husband brought home a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food one day, but I was using some doctor's medicine at the time, so I did not bother. Later a lady friend said to me: 'Why don't you persevere with the Nerve Food?' They have certainly helped me. So I commenced using them, and dropped all other medicines. After a good treatment of the Nerve Food I felt much better and stronger, and had the full use of my hand. I found that as I got stronger the nervousness disappeared. I am feeling so much better now that I am able to do all my own work. I always keep a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in the house, and would not want to be without it. 'My little girl' has also received great benefit from taking some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. She seemed to be nervous, and was troubled with bed-wetting, so I thought I would try them with her, and was pleased to find that she has been completely cured of both these troubles. 'I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and would recommend it to anyone suffering from nervous trouble of any kind.' Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, a full treatment of six boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Barnes & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.—(Advertisement.)

IN MEMORIAM.
PAULINE.—In loving memory of Joseph Pauline, who departed this life June 30th, 1914. Rest in peace.
They have departed, but in death
A Christian's love need never cease;
Our voices reach beyond the grave,
To plead that they may rest in peace;
And, the eyes grow dim with tears,
To think of some loved vacant chair,
Not tears alone shall mark our grief,
We hush our sighs to breathe a prayer.

convoys had successfully passed the submarine zone. The port was speedily refitted in honor of the occasion. All the troops now arrived were transferred today to a camp not far distant from this point, where Major-General William L. Sibert is installed. Thence they probably will go soon to a point near the front. All the troops are in excellent shape. The harbor is dotted with convoys. The streets are filled with soldiers in khaki and with bluejackets. Great numbers of trucks are transporting immense supplies to the camp in which the troops are concentrating.

GALT WITHOUT GAS.

Special to The Toronto World.
Galt, June 27.—As a result of a break in the main line pipe in the centre of a swamp west of Longton, Galt is without gas tonight, and the company announces that it will be well on into Friday night before it will be turned on again. The break is serious for this city, gas being used in many factories, and many housekeepers depend upon it entirely for cooking purposes.

NOT Greater in Price BUT Greater in Value

As some would say, "There is milk and The Farmers' Dairy Milk."

There are many things which contribute to make The Farmers' Dairy Milk superior. And these causes are first noticed on the farms—the farms of our own shareholders. For instance, exceptional care is taken of the cows. They are carefully fed. Kept in the healthiest condition. Inspected regularly. Milked by experts in sanitary barns.

Then at the dairy, a sanitary, perfectly-equipped building, flooded in sunshine, the milk is again handled with the utmost care. Scientifically pasteurized. Cooled. Bottled by machinery.

That's why this milk is better. That's why The Farmers' Dairy milk, though not greater in price, is greater in value.

Decide now which milk you will select. To combat high prices you need not only a food that costs less, but one that will give greater food value. And The Farmers' Dairy Milk does this. It costs little, but is worth much. Get tickets today. Our salesmen have them. Or you can get them by writing or phoning us.

Heroes Returned From Pres-

of Honor Monday.

Camp Borden, June 27.—Major-General

Logie has sent word to Col. Grassett that the veterans of the present war, whether they can march or have to be driven in carriages or autos, are to lead the Dominion Day parade in Toronto, and at the review they will be given the place

Sir Henry Pellatt, with Lt.-Col. J. Cooper

Mason as his brigade major.

The taking of photographs for commercial purposes within the limits of Camp

Borden on Sundays has been forbidden.

This step has been taken in order that the photographer who is willing to observe the law in regard to carrying on business on Sunday may not have an unfair advantage taken of him by his less scrupulous competitor. It does not affect the taking of photos on Saturday, or in case of a special permit on other week days.

Three officers of the 255th Battalion,

C.E.F., have been struck off the strength.

They are Capt. Andrew H. Paterson, has been taken on the staff of the Whitby Military Hospital, with the temporary rank of captain. Capt. G. W. Carle-
