The little girl was ill with influenza at the time.

Financial worries had temporarily unbalanced her mind, Mrs. Favre told the police. She had been receiving monthly payments from an interest in a lumber business left her by her father, and when these failed to arrive last week she wrote to a Mr. Jack. son at the company's New York office, threatening to kill herself if the money was not forthcoming at once. The mails were delayed by storms and Jackson did not get the letter until today.

His representative called at Mrs. Favre's apartment hotel without delay and receiving no response, got house manager to force the Favre front door. They found Mrs. Favre sitting beside her dead daughter with a pistol in her hand. She made a movement as the to shoot herself, and the two men overpowered her, taking the gun away.

She was examined by the police, charged with homicide and held without bail. She said her husband was Seymore Favre, sometimes called Si- sisted chiefly of Rigfoot Farm, on the were divorced shortly after Margaret's birth. NATIONS' TRIBUNAL WILL BE DISCUSSED

Scandinavia Has Accepted Invitation of Holland to Conference.

Paris, Feb. 9.—The three Scandinavian nations have accepted the invitation of Holland to a conference at The Hague on Feb. 16, to discuss participation in the permanent court of international justice, provided for by article 14 of the league of nations covenant, the Christiania correspondent of The Temps says it is announced in Norwegian official circles. Switzerland, under present plans, also will take part in the conference.

The Temps says the proposed court apparently is intended to try offenders against the laws of war, and believes it would furnish a basis for solution of the problem arising from the allied demand for the extradition of Germans accused of war guilt.

A "square" meal for the Jews in Bessarabla, Bukowina and the Ukraine consists of a thin soup made of beans and potatoes—without bread or other "trimmings," according to Barnet Zuckerman, of New York, who has recently returned from eastern Europe where he represented Jewish relief agencies.

The report, made public by the American Jewish Relief Committee, tells of unbelievable conditions of starvation, suffering and want. The large Jewish population in these regions, states Mr. Zuckerman, is facing the winter with dread, while the under-nourished, underfed children present a sight that haunts all who have traveled thru the countries. "To my mind," asserts Mr. Zuckerman, "going to the reacte of these people ought to supersede everything else, for over hundreds of thousands of them hangs the sword of Damocles; and if we do not immediately make efforts sto save them, our conscience cannot be satisfied that we are partly responsible for the lives that will be lost."

in his resignation.

J. P. MacGregor, a lawyer, announced to the committee that he represented himself and other ratepayers of Downsview who wanted a thoroinquiry, because he had reason to believe that a fraud had been committed against the township. Reminded by Chairman Graham that his statement was pretty strong, Mr. MacGregor replied:

"We are prepared to give the council sufficient information to warrant a full inquiry, and if you refuse to put your house in order, I will go to the attorney-general and force you to do so."

Continuing, Mr. MacGregor said

do not immediately make elforts say stemm, our conscience cannot be satisfied that we are partly responsible for the lives that will be lost."

In referring to the food that is served in the public kitchen of Chernowitz—and Chernowitz is cited as fairly representing the general deplorable conditions, Mr. Zuckerman says:

"In this city of Chernowitz there are at least 15,000 to 18,000 people who must be fed daily; unless immediate assistance is forthcoming, the single public kitchen must be closed. At the time food is being distributed, splendid order is maintained—which is a cause of no little wonderment when one considers that every day hundreds of these poor geople must be turned away without food."

The portion of food which is allowed each person at the public kitchen is a

to do so."

Continuing, Mr. MacGregor said there was ample evidence to support the charge that the council of York Township had paid for work that had never been done, and that the officials, Foreman Wicks, and the commissioner, knew it was never done.

"You also accuse Mr. Snyder?" asked the chairman.

"I do," replied Mr. MacGregor.

Being assured that he would be furnished with a copy of the evidence, Mr. MacGregor said the charges would be repeated.

A large number of women delegates will be in attendance for the women's section when the opening sessions are called. Two questions appear to be uppermost in the minds of many delegates at present. One is whether or not the convention as a whole will accept a change of name of the association, and the other is the entry or non-entry of organized farmers of the province into the provincial political arena. In regard to the former, it is stated that the central body has received resolutions from a number of locals calling for the change of name of the association to the United Farmers of Saskatchewan, to swing into line with those of Alberta, Manitoba and Ontario. and Ontario.
