NELIGAN'S ENGLISH WORM CANDY.

A short time ago I sent a doctor (an English medical man, and a M. R. C. S. E.) a dozen boxes of Neligan's English Worm Candy. He used them and sent a certificate (which I published before) with this remark: "I like your Medicine because it is so very easily given, and I have never known it to fail; that is to say, I have in two cases found that it did not bring away worms, but in these cases I am sure there were no worms present, as I tried other worm medicines afterwards, without effect."

Sold by Druggists everywhere. None genuine without R. Stark's signature. Price 25 cents per box, 5 boxes for $1.

THE best and most conclusive reason for an effect that we ever remember to have heard, was given by a Dutchman, in reply to a friend, who remarked: "Why, Hans, you have the most feminine cast of countenance I have ever seen." "Oh, yaw," was the reply, "I know the reason for dat—my mother was a woman."
