ensive views of life, and does not quite realize what duty means, or he would not the conclusion that because going on we should all be To begin with, half of humanity are women and exclude them from fighting, from suffering. When they as men it will be time for them to take their places. A large part of the population is womanish in character. They are of their bodies and their than the fundamental principles which civilization and progress must rest. If they any excuse they will never. Some time or other they will stand up for truth and the high ideals of their men to the death.

CREATES HATRED between nations, asserts my correspondent. Germany Austria in 1866 and defeated France for centuries and they are allies. To they fought Russia sixty years ago. All three are allies. They fought Turkey in 1877. Nations are as lovers. They do not love. They are only moved at present. Very few have learned to choose the rather than the dearer. And are made up of people. mystic poise and balance of or which I spoke, "between of strife and progress, men call peace, do not carry upward and onward." This is, my correspondent thinks, warrant us all in going to wars to conquer Germany and at some other power. Strife of striving and there are kind of striving besides war, progress may or may not remain military action. It is a place of occult teaching that is only made by the soul it is incarnated. Between the purgatorial and states serve for purification and assimilation of the results. It is only when the full of life is sounding in the union of soul, mind and spirit that ment or redemption could be. This is the real mystery. Incarnation and the Christ, the Christos on the Cross of War is part of the Crucifixion but it cannot destroy brotherhood, for brotherhood exists in the nature of things. It is merely have not discovered it yet, and need to practice it. Dislike Karma is certainly a revolution and conquest, those who suffer soon incarnate in the bodies of their fathers and collect their debts direct and indisputable.

SOCIETY OR BODY of men pledged against any other body or organization of importance may very safely consist of former vice the system or the organization which they are now Most of our religious and rancour is not due to injustices, but to the libelate engendered in past lives manifesting. This is the of the saying, "Love enemies, bless them that persecute you." In a former life they were on opposite sides of a barrel which they are now settle by an exchange of The idea of a millennium is mainly a delusion as long as insist that all the truth is on one side. A millennium can come from a realization of hood and spiritual life, an understanding of the laws of incarnation and rebirth, and a determination of all men to make the part of all men of their life the sole aim of their We are a long way from that when the Kaiser thinks the representative of God on earth and millions agree with him. Men are capable of representing earth, and do so to some extent, but until they the utmost of their ability will not be in general agreement. Men who strive for such an make great spiritual progress. A man who values his life less than his principles wins the way to a higher level in life and a better birth. Hence it is that soldiers dying in the cause of liberty and duty at heart will reincarnate in a new sub-race which is to be My correspondent asks: "Karma is merely a name for Providence, or for the name of justice, or for the book of the universe. Nobody gets what he earns more nor less. A foolish version of Christianity says on saving one's soul. Jesus said that anyone who tried to save his soul would lose it, but who would gain it eternally. We are the religion of war. We kill out self in ourselves and our lives for others. Religion will take care of our
