

NEWS BOYS ADDRESS
To the Patrons of the OBSERVER,
January 1, 1860.

I come but once a year, my friends,
With any eye to selfish ends;—
Accept the Carrier's simple lay,
And then bestow—the Carrier's pay!

The Muse attempts his yearly ode,
Altho' not us'd to Lyrics;
He does not call at your abode
To hunt for panegyrics.

He merely calls to see if you
Will pay the last year's tribute—
When that is done, with deference due,
Will I my verse exhibit.

Come, through my retrospect behold,
Events of nine and thirty;
What tho' you brand the news as old,
'Twill pain, perchance divert ye.

The first we notice was a threat—
The men of Maine were nettled,
About a question, not as yet,
Nor ever may be settled.

They thought to put us in a fright,
By sending to the border,
A force to drive us, or to fight,
'Twas Fairfield's special order.

JOHN BULL rush'd quickly to the spot,
Rage foaming from his gullet—
But SIR JOHN HARVEY heard from SCOTT,
So neither fired a bullet.

We give SIR JOHN the highest praise,
For bravery and decision;
One word from him had caus'd a blaze—
Had led to dire collision.

Commissioners, can't you define
The course at first intended?
Come, run at once the Boundry line,
And let the strife be ended.

But cross John Bull's old forest path,
And tho' he seems so humble,
He'll rise and roar in all his wrath,
And gore as well as grumble.

Tho' Canada, still discontent,
Mak'd thirty-nine with treason,
We trust that Thomson, lately sent,
Will bring them back to reason.

May no more sympathizing foes
(Who'er may back or lead em),
Beyond the lines protrude their nose,
With firelock, fire and—Freedom!

Mark how equality now works,
In Lynch-law—Insurrection—
With Bowie Knives and Spears and
Dirks,
At Congress and Election.

Come, choose a Speaker in a trice,
Friend Jonathan—thy Nation
Are watching thee as cats do mice,
Expecting VAN'S Oration.

But turn we now to good SAINT JOHN—
A direful Conflagration
Render'd the Year that's past and gone,
A time of lamentation.

Yet see what fine brick houses rise
Above the smould'ring ruin,
And with anticipation's eyes,
See what young Forty's doing!

Our Trade extends on ev'ry side
Its various roots and branches;
Behold our Shipping on the tide—
Ships building—Steamers—Launches.

And our new Market House, at last,
Has open'd wide its portals—
Where, as 'tis no time to fast,
Just see the thronging mortals!

But those may stay at home and starve
Who are so very silly
As slight good Beef, and those who serve,
With aprons like a lilly.

Our Water Works for want of cash,
Have not done half intended;
Or Water, both to cook and wash,
Had now been far extended.

A drop or two of Bankers' oil
Would help our power and motion—
Yet still they see us tug and toil,
With stoical emotion.

'Tis true they beautify the town,
With temples rais'd to Pluto's;
But grieve to lend a pound or crown,
However well 't would suit us.

We now can swiftly cross the stream,
(No thanks to Bridg or wherry),
We fly to Carleton beach by steam—
A safe, commodious ferry.

Then steam will shortly bring the Mail,
The Western, (ship gigantic),
Has prov'd that steam can bear a gale,
And cross the great Atlantic.

And may CANARD have all success,
Who leads all other schemers—
May no disaster or distress
Attend his gallant steamers.

With all our dark, foreboding fear,
Our murr'ing without reason,
We've had a highly fruitful year—
The HARVEST HOME in season.

Whilst weather mild, devoid of snow,
Has made December pleasant—
What is to come we do not know;
Nor need we mind at present.

Now let us thank a gracious God,
Through every BANNSWICK County,
Who sent, when we deserved the rod,
A largess of his bounty.

Heaven bless our home, the British Isles,
And better their condition—
Protect them from all foreign wiles,
And save them from sedition.

Establish QUEEN VICTORIA'S Throne
Upon the best foundation—
Her subjects' love—the stable stone,
The strength of every nation.

My QUEEN, I would not raise my voice
Against a spouse or consort—
Yet why the Guelphs' peculiar choice
Still fix'd upon the one sort?

Young CAMBRIDGE sure is worth thy hand,—
Tho' deck'd with gold and ermine,—
Why wilt thou then leave home and land,
To take a needy German?

But hold, my Muse, and now conclude,
Or thou wilt utter treason—
Thy patrons too may deem thee rude,
Thus rhyming without reason.

Keep up your hearts, fair City GIRLS—
The present rage for Marrying
Holds forth a hope your graceful curls
Will not grow gray with tarrying.

But should you yearn to be rather shy,
Your claim is fair and ample,—
For this is leap year, by the bye,—
And then the QUEEN'S example!

Long life and pleasure to the QUEEN—
SIR JOHN, her good Vicegerent:
And while my patrons give, I mean
To be their firm adherent.

I wish, with a heart friendly, warm, and sincere,
My Patrons and Friends all, a happy NEW YEAR.

Eustace & Temple's Invaluable Gonorrhoea Mixture.
A length has been discovered an infallible and invaluable remedy for the cure of the most obdurate chronic and common cases of Gonorrhoea in five days. The dangerous and common disease, which has hitherto been offered to those who have unfortunately incurred the above troublesome disease, is a preparation which is attended with no danger whatever, and produced in many cases, very serious and alarming effects. To guard against these abuses, Eustace & Temple have been induced to prepare a preparation which is attended with no danger whatever, and is active and efficient in curing the disease, with little trouble to the patient. The proprietors have been studious in this particular, as many persons cannot spare the time, or suspend business, to undergo a regular course of medicine and regimen.—This preparation will entirely obviate this necessity. The course pursued is exceedingly simple, and will not interfere with the regular duties of business; and if the medicine is used according to the directions, it will effect a speedy cure in five days. As to its decided efficacy, we will barely remark, that since its use in this city, there has not been a failure in a single case, and there are many both of the faculty and otherwise, who have already testified with pleasure to its decided superior qualities. It is perfectly agreeable, and persons of the most delicate stomachs have used it without any inconvenience whatever.

DEPILATORY POWDER, For removing all superfluous hair.

Dr. Spoon's Elixir of Health.
THE leading points to theory upon which the great use of this Syrup is predicated, is that the stomach is the seat of all diseases of a febrile nature, and any disorder incident to the stomach is cured by this article. There is therefore no fever or cold, asthma, inflammation or debility, or sickness at stomach, (except with females, etc.), or dysentery, or jaundice, or dyspepsia, but what it will cure. The only thing is that people should be patient and depend upon it. For Asthma it has no equal.
