

BOURASSA SUPPORTS LAURIER IN EFFORT TO UPSET GOVERNMENT

Montreal, Nov. 9.—Henri Bourassa has come out straight for Laurier in his paper Le Devoir. He says: "We ask nothing better than to assist Laurier in upsetting the government of national reasons. We wish, however, that he should surround himself, as well as his party, with barriers solid and high enough to prevent brigands of the Northcote and Sifton brand from creating alarm in the sheepfold by corrupting the shepherds and in muzzling the watch dogs."

Mr. Bourassa claims that Le Devoir is the interpreter and directing spirit of the Nationalists. Then he says: "The unionist programme is the antipodes of all we admire, of all we believe and all we desire; while it is the essence of all we detest, of all we despise, both in men, ideas and tendencies of both parties. We are, in fact, at our case in combatting this detestable coalition. We are at one with Laurier in contesting the right of the Tories to seek pardon for their crimes and acts of the past six years."

Mr. Bourassa takes a whack at the Liberal members of the government. He says: "We in no way share the opinion of the opposition leader as to the respectability of the renegade Liberals who have rallied to the Borden ministry. We see nothing of respectability in the monstrous cupidity of a Sifton, in the hypocrisy of a Fielding or a Rowell, or in the cynicism of a Ballantyne, a Guthrie or a Pugsley. We see in this ministry but the coalition of the most sordid appetites and the most contemptible tendencies."

JAPAN'S RESOURCES LOW
Japan's resources have been depleted by the war and they must be augmented to enable her to continue her full participation in the world strife, Baron Megata, head of the special financial commission from Japan, said on Wednesday night in a speech at St. Louis.

"Japan's desire not only to do her part in the war but to render the fullest possible aid to her allies has forced her to greatly diminish her stocks of supplies," declared the baron.

I wonder what's wrong with my Tea?

My! This certainly IS good Tea

The woman on the left bought some "cheap" tea. You can see she's not pleased. She's sorry now she tried to save a few cents by buying the "cheap" tea.

How different with the woman on the right. The fragrance of her tea tells her how good it is. She paid a few cents more for Red Rose Tea than the other woman paid for her "cheap" tea—and besides Red Rose will prove more economical in the end!

Because of the rich flavor and vigorous strength of the Assam tea of which Red Rose chiefly consists, it will make 250 cups to the pound, or about a fifth of a cent a cup. So cheap that the very poorest can afford it, so good that the rich can find nothing better.

DR. TRAVIS GOING TO HONAN, CHINA

Hampton, Oct. 8.—The monthly devotional meeting of the women's auxiliary of the Anglican church which met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. S. Campbell, was of more than usual interest because its members took this occasion to do honor to one of their workers, Dr. Catherine Travis, who as a medical missionary, is soon to sail for China. After the usual programme was completed, the president, Mrs. William Robinson, on behalf of the members of the W. A., presented to Dr. Travis a beautiful quilt.

This was followed by an interesting address by Dr. Roy Campbell, who, on behalf of the choir members and the members of the W. A., presented to Dr. Travis a well filled purse. While expressing regret at the loss of such an earnest worker in the church, Dr. Campbell said it was with a feeling of pride that he performed this service for one who had been called to such a grand and noble work. Dr. Campbell also made mention of the fact that Dr. Travis had the honor of being not only the first in the Anglican church but the first in Hampton to devote herself to work in the foreign field. Dr. Travis in a few words expressed her appreciation of the gifts and kind words from her friends.

Dr. Travis expects to leave Hampton Nov. 28. After making short visits with friends in Toronto, Owen Sound and Vancouver, she will be joined by two missionaries, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Williams, who after a furlough, are returning to China. Owing to the shortage of British steamers the party will sail from San Francisco, their destination being Honan.

It will be remembered that Dr. Travis spent the year of 1916-17 in Serbia doing medical work under the auspices of the American Red Cross, leaving only when the inhabitants were driven out by the enemy. After many hardships Dr. Travis was allowed a passport through Russia arriving home June 8, 1916. Since that time Dr. Travis has been enjoying a much needed rest. She will be followed to her new work by the best wishes of hosts of friends not only in New Brunswick but in the eastern States.

long march, being put through on a two day's manoeuvre battle after a night march. The heat, however, was no longer oppressive. The nights are now fresh and cool and the health of the force is excellent.

When the British forces entered Ramadiah, they found many signs of the confusion and surprise of the Turkish forces. The British eye witness, writing from Ramadiah, says: "A deep gully west of the town was strewn with miscellaneous litter for half a mile, including pack-saddles, furniture, books, suit cases, and office paraphernalia. Forty horses and baggage animals and some 30 camels have been collected."

WITH THE BRITISH IN MESOPOTAMIA

London, Oct. 12.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The occupation of Ramadiah has carried the British Mesopotamian army some thirty miles upstream from its previous outpost at Seluja. This is the distance measured as the crow flies, but it is nearly double that distance by the winding Euphrates. The British convoys, though moving by day, pass each other in the darkness of a London fog, and the white dust which covers the faces of the Arabian porters gives them the ashen complexion of circus clowns.

On the right bank of the Euphrates the flat alluvial soil of the delta is left behind and one comes to the first low dunes and pebbly ridges, while the roads are better and easier. It was on ground of this nature that the battle of Ramadiah was fought.

The British troops showed themselves in excellent condition, after their
