ST. JOHN TO LOSE TWO POPULAR OFFICERS OF THE SALVATION ARMY

Brigadier Taylor of the Salvation Army, St. John, delivered an illustrated lecture last evening before a large audience in the Salvation Army hall in Moncton on "The Salvation Army and the World War." He portrayed the activities of the Salvation Army in extending comforts to the soldiers and alleviating the distress of the wounded and the Belgian refugees. The St. John division had pledged $800 towards motor ambulances being sent to the front by the Salvation Army from Canada. An appeal is being made for contribution to this fund.
Major Coombs of St. John, accompanied Brigadier Taylor. This was their farewell visit to Moncton. Capt. Hamm of the Moncton corps expressed the regret of workers there over the departure of the divisional officers from this field.
Brigadier Taylor and Major Coombs are on a farewell tour of the maritime provinces. Major Coombs said they did not yet know where they would be stationed.

ITALIAN TRAGEDY STIRS COURT CIRCLES

Daughter of Dutch Minister to Italy and Married Count Commit Suicide Together
Rome, Sept. 10.—Mlle. Odilla Van Welden, 20 years of age, daughter of Baron Welden, Dutch minister to Italy and Count Giofredo Gaspari Dell'Aquila Aragona, according to newspaper despatches from Sorrento, were found dead in the count's villa at a nearby beach. In the room was found a letter in which they said they could not live without each other and preferred to die.
The count who was a member of prominent Neapolitan family, was separated from his wife. He was on leave of absence from the front where he had been fighting with an Alpine regiment in which he was a sub-lieutenant.
Reports of the tragedy have caused deep regret in diplomatic and court circles.

Noted Lumberman Dead
Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 11.—Samuel H. Bowman, head of lumber trade interests that extended from western Canada to the Gulf of Mexico, died of heart trouble last night. He was born in 1836.

TO SELL THE STOCK
At a meeting of the creditors of John P. Keirvan, ranchman, yesterday in J. A. Barry's office, Mr. Barry was confirmed as assignee. Dr. W. B. Wallace and Frank J. Rafferty were appointed inspectors with instructions to dispose of the stock.

THE PATRIOTIC DANCE
The total proceeds of the dance, the last of the season, at the pretty pavilion among the trees by the shore at Public Landing this evening will be sent to the Patriotic Fund. Quite a number from St. John who have greatly enjoyed these dances and music refreshments are expected to go up tonight, while the fine weather will attract many from points up and down the river.

TO BE A NURSE
About forty young friends of Miss Lou Giggie of Harrison street called on her on Thursday evening and tendered her a handsome birthday party. She was also the recipient of a beautiful fountain pen. The evening was very pleasantly spent with games and music. Refreshments were served at midnight. Miss Giggie will leave early next week to study nursing in New York.

LAST OF WOODWORK OF SUSPENSION BRIDGE
LIKELY AWAY TODAY
Taking Down Cables Will Be Big Task—More Money For Miss McKel's Work

Today is likely to see the last of the woodwork on the old Suspension Bridge as there remains only about eighty feet of flooring on the eastern section to take away and that will likely be finished tonight. Yesterday the last of the western end was demolished, some seventy-two feet, and all that now remains on the west side are the two stone pillars and the cables.
It is expected the cables will be taken away next week and many persons are speculating as to just how the job will be accomplished. There are ten cables each weighing ten tons, so the contract of removing them will be no light one. The stone from the immense pillars supporting the cables is to be taken to Moncton and used on a contract which Messrs. McVey and Son have on hand there.
Further contributions to Miss Theodora McKel's fund for the purchase of a house for her mother, Mrs. McKel, Fairville, as follows: Proceeds from dance held at McKel's, No. 55, O.S.C.S., assisted by Ladies' Auxiliary, St. John, $68.55; Miss Florence Giles, New River, $30; Harold A. Allison, $6.

SHOULD BE NO DOUBT ABOUT ABILITY TO GET THAT $50,000
Christchurch, Little Larger Than St. John, Raised $125,000 in a Single Day

When Christchurch, a city of about 70,000 people, was asked to raise $125,000 in one day for a patriotic endeavor known as a "Belgian Harvest Festival" it is felt by the promoters of the patriotic auction in St. John that it should be not so difficult a task as some seem to think to secure $50,000 in six days in this city. The festival referred to was conducted some time ago. Large donations were given by the people of the city and surrounding districts. All things used in the event were contributed, and there was a remarkable display of goods.
One of the features in connection with the endeavor was an auction, but on nearly so elaborate a scale as that planned for October 4 to 9 here, for the entire efforts of the societies promoting the St. John event, are being concentrated upon the main suggestion, with the slogan $50,000 in a week always before them. In Christchurch four auctioneers were busy during the day, but even with this number and with ready and willing bidding in progress, it was not found possible to dispose of all the goods donated when the doors closed for the night.
But think of the sum realized! They secured $125,000 in a day! And there are some who doubt that the people of St. John and surrounding districts will be unable to swell the patriotic fund by $50,000 in a week through an endeavor more stupendous! The auction which is to be conducted in St. Andrew's rink can be made a success, there must be generous donations upon the part of all—each must play his part and give as liberally as possible when the canvassers begin their rounds on September 20. Think it over in the meantime!

Dumba Tumbles.
Once again the American relations with Germany are "strained," which causes our country cousin to remark that "you never know how many 'strained' relations you have, until you live in the suburbs and don't invite them to spend half the summer with you."

But it's remarkable how often those U. S. relations have been strained without puncturing.
Turkey must have a wonderful fleet, judging by the way correspondents are telling of "Turkish ships being sunk."

A question which the assessment commission might consider is the viewpoint of the taxpayer on covering street car tracks with concrete.

The Main Street Fiasco.
It has been said city hall that night work was not satisfactory for the city streets, but the concrete laid after midnight on the Main street tracks, looks like a very well done job. And last night under cover of darkness the concrete mixer, sand and other obstructions which were on the finished track were made to disappear, allowing a street car to run over it this morning.

Indianapolis people experienced a new sensation today—they were able to ride to the avenue without having to transfer at Adelphi.

But even at that the service is not what it should be, no matter who is to be blamed, the company or the city.

And the correspondence now being printed between Mr. Potts and Mr. Hooper is rather comical with what is being said in the street.

In the exchange of notes the U. S. and Germany don't seem to be many laps ahead of the city and street railway.

And when it comes to comparison with Austrian diplomats the local talent leads; neither side has even tried to be as dumb as Dumba.

With the baseball season at the climax and bowling beginning to edge in, it will not be long before the hockey arenas begin to supply some of the thrills for which we have had to depend on the battle-fields during the summer.

Two Sides to This Story.
Here is the way an indignant citizen told the story: "It's a nice way they're running that patriotic fund, isn't it? They are going to kill recruiting around here if they don't look out. Do you know that they cut off the allowance for the two children of a man who is now at the front, since his wife died, and that when his sister, who is looking after the children, went to the committee about it they told her to put the little ones in an orphan asylum."
Here is the version of an official of the fund:
After the death of the mother the government consented to continue the maintenance of the children in an orphan asylum; the father of the children was assigned half his pay to her, $15 a month more, and the patriotic fund was paying $12 a month, a total of $47 a month to look after the children. It was through our attention that the soldier's sister, in spite of the fact that she was married to a man earning a good income, had placed the children in an orphan asylum at a total cost of $12 a month for their upkeep.
When the lady protested it was pointed out to her that in her circumstances she might be expected to contribute to the fund instead of drawing from it."

ORDNANCE CORPS MEN
HERE WELL DOING
SHARE FOR EMPIRE
Would Like to Be at Front But Orders Hold Them in Service at Home

There is one branch of the militia service in Canada which has been an important factor in the matter of attending to the equipment of many units which have been raised for overseas duty, and that is the Canadian Ordnance Corps. They have been busy men since last fall, but except with those who know what service is that unit contains, they have received little public credit for their work.
In St. John there are ten members of this unit, under command of Major Anderson. They have had greatly increased work since the outbreak of the war. It is not of their own wish that many of them remain on service here—one man has applied six times to be transferred to another unit so that he could get to active service abroad. But the militia department realizes that it would require fully six months or even longer to familiarize newcomers with the Ordnance Corps duties, and consequently refuses to let any more transfers take place beyond a few which were permitted in the early stages of the war.

—ARE THE BIG—
Cedar Polish Mop Days at Our Store
As already advertised, we will offer for sale on those days 288 of these large mops, each packed in a metal box, with 54 inch handle and a one-half pint can of Cedar Oil Polish, for 65c. each.
The Mop, exactly as illustrated, has been chemically treated with Cedar Oil, is shaped so as to get into every corner of your floors, walls or ceilings, and will pick up all dust and dirt, cleaning and polishing as though by magic.
Dirt collected can be removed by simply shaking the mop. After some weeks' use the mop can be washed in warm water and after being dried and receiving a fresh application of Cedar Oil will be as good as new. We have set aside two days in which to distribute these, but cannot guarantee that they will last, as the number is limited to 288. So come early and avoid disappointment.
Sale does not commence until Monday at 8 a.m., and no orders will be accepted earlier. Please do not ask us to make exceptions.
