SUITS HALF PRICE

Second Lot of Suits to Sell at Half Label Price

"I have a fine lot of Scotch tweeds in good winter weights, greys and browns, which were sent me on consignment with instructions to sell any one of the forty suits in the case at half the label price," said John Condon.

"These will be the best advertisement you could ever put out for semi-ready tailoring," wrote the general manager of the company.

"Every suit is perfect," concluded Mr. Condon, "and there are sizes from 36 to 48 inches in B. C. and F. types."

The Sunshine Class of Tabernacle church met last evening at the home of Mrs. Cuthbertson, Wright street. Addresses were given by the hostess and by Mrs. F. P. Dennison.

The Home Guard had an opening drill last night in the large lot near Pettigill's wharf.

A visitor to the city yesterday was Colonel A. J. Markham, formerly O. C. of the 8th Hussars, and manager of the St. John Sun, who came here in charge of a body of twenty Welshmen being sent to Wales at the expense of R. Marpole, chief executive assistant of the C. P. R. on the Pacific to join a Welsh brigade. Col. Markham is being welcomed by many friends. He has been away from here about nine years and was pleased to see the strides St. John had taken at that time, and the improvement in many ways.

London, Jan. 28—Col. Victor Williams who has been suffering from acute influenza since Jan. 23 will leave the hospital at Salisbury Plain tomorrow.

Ottawa, Jan. 28—The Duke of Connaught tonight presented to the Boy Scouts of the Ottawa district two silver bugles from Major Hamilton Gault and officers of the Princess Patricia Regiment, in recognition of services rendered by the scouts during the mobilization of the corps here last fall.

Hampton, Jan. 28—Official information has been received here of the appointment of Captain and Quartermaster Ralph A. March, of the 8th P. L. Hussars, to the same post in the Sixth Mounted Rifles overseas, and of Lieut. G. Roland Barnes, of the 8th Hussars, to be lieutenant in the same regiment.
