While these matters were discussed freely and opinions given, the meeting did not place itself on record as favoring any definite site except to state that the development was needed and that the west side was the best place for it. Furter meetings are expected during the winter to take up this matter.

Canadian Walker Won In England

LONDON, Dec. 7 .- Phil Granville, LONDON, Dec. 7.—Phil Granville, colored walker, formerly of Hamilton, Ont., and a member of Canada's last Olympic team, finished first in the five mile walking race staged between teams of the Southern Railway and the Stock Exchange, at Croydon, on Saturday. His time was thirty-seven minutes and twenty-five seconds, a good performance, in view of the treacherous condition of the roads. Granville led all the way, and finished twelve seconds ahead of the second competitor.
