NEWS NOTES ABOUT PROMINENT BAPTISTS

(Maritime Baptist.)
Rev. L. B. Gray, who spent the last year in study at Newton Theological Institute, spent a few days in St. John, June 11. He has gone for a short time to his home at Fort Lawrence, Cumberland county, N. S.

Rev. Frank O. Erb, Ph.D., of the American Baptist Publication Society, favored us with a call on Wednesday of last week. Dr. Erb is in the maritime provinces to attend as many of the associations as he may be able to reach to give counsel and stimulus regarding Sunday school and young people's work. Dr. Erb is a native of New Brunswick.

Rev. Rufus Sanford, D. D., celebrated his eightieth birthday on April 13. Nearly fifty years of this long life have been spent in devoted missionary service and many lives have felt a touch of Heaven through their contact with this humble follower of Jesus. Many friends will join with us in wishing Dr. Sanford the most pleasant remembrance of life.

Rev. D. H. McQuarrie, who for the last five years has been pastor of the New Germany church, Lunenburg county, N. S., has tendered his resignation to take effect on August 1, 1922. Mr. McQuarrie is well known as a scholarly and interesting preacher. The New Germany church is now desirous of securing a pastor to take up the work when Mr. McQuarrie completes his term of service.

We were pleased to have a call on Tuesday of last week from Rev. J. B. Ganong, who was just returning to his home in Sussex, after a few weeks spent in ministering to the church in St. Andrews. Mr. Ganong is greatly improved in health, showing the improvement in every way. Indeed, he reports himself as feeling equal to the work of a pastor where the physical demands are not too taxing. Mr. Ganong's many friends will be pleased to know of his improvement. We trust that this very efficient worker may be able to take up active work among our churches again.

A letter to the Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board from Rev. H. Y. Jorey reports that he and Mrs. Corey telegram awaited them, announcing the death of Mrs. Corey's mother at Tenant's Harbor, Maine, wither they at once proceeded for the funeral. Our friends may be assured of the sympathy of Canadian Baptists in the sorrow which has befallen them on the threshold of their furlough. After a few weeks' rest in Canada where he has not been for years, purporting to return to the maritime provinces about September. These two missionaries have been exceptionally capable and faithful workers, their last charge having been that of the Vinznapatan High School, where there are nearly 1,000 students in attendance and while it needed firmness, patience and wisdom to carry on in these days of unrest in India. We extend to them a right royal welcome home and all good wishes for a restful and happy furlough.
