RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. R. J. Adams.

The death of Mrs. R. J. Adams occurred at her residence, 64 Lansdowne avenue, on Aug. 15. Although Mrs. Adams had been suffering from a lingering illness her death came unexpectedly and will be keenly felt by a wide circle of friends. Mrs. Adams, who was the daughter of the late Joseph and Hannah Dickson, leaves to mourn her loss her husband, one sister, Mrs. F. H. Shaw, of Fairville, one son and three daughters. The children are Mildred, in the Canadian Express Company's employ, and Edgar, Helen and Annie, at home. The funeral will be held from her late residence on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30.

Mrs. Ellen O'Grady.

Many friends will be sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Ellen O'Grady, widow of John O'Grady, which occurred this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Kelly, 155 Princess street, after illness of about a year. Mrs. O'Grady is survived by one daughter, the wife of Dr. C. M. Kelly, three sisters, Mrs. James O'Brien and Mrs. James Cullinan, of this city, and Miss Mary A. McCarthy, of Boston; also two brothers, Jeremiah McCarthy, of this city, and James of Calgary.

Frederick, Aug. 15—The body of John Williams was found in the Nashwaakias River tonight at an early hour. It had been in the water for five or six days, according to appearance. Dr. B. M. Mullin, coroner, viewed the body and decided that death was due to drowning. The deceased had been living the life of a recluse in a little shack near the Nashwaakias River. Formerly he had farmed near Currie's Mountain, parish of Douglas. He was demented and had made threats of doing away with himself.

A widow, second wife of the deceased, survives, living in Maine. Mrs. Austin Scott, of Fredericton, is a daughter. The deceased was about seventy years of age.

The death of Captain Joseph J. Donovan occurred at his residence, 52 Smythe street, yesterday. Captain Donovan was well known at many ports, having made many voyages in a notable career at sea. During the war he sailed on troopships and on merchant vessels and had strange adventures. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Driscoll and Mrs. C. O'Leary, both of St. John. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning from his late residence to the Cathedral.

Many friends will regret to learn of the passing of Mrs. Mary A. Hunter, which occurred at an early hour on Sunday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Coulthard, 75 Waterloo Row, Fredericton. Mrs. Hunter had reached her eighty-seventh year. Throughout her long life, even to the end, she was interested in every good work and she had always taken an active part in the welfare of the community in which she lived. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. T. H. Shaw, of St. John, and three daughters, Mrs. G. E. Coulthard, Mrs. Harris G. Fenety and Miss E. B. Hunter, all of Fredericton. The late Mrs. Ella J. Fraser of Halifax was also a daughter. Mrs. F. B. Miles of Cranbrook, B. C., a grand-daughter, and her three children represent the fourth generation.

Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery, West St. John, today, on the

LOCAL NEWS

SOCIETY INSTITUTED.

The reception of members into the new society instituted in Holy Trinity parish, The Confraternity of the Most Blessed Sacrament, took place last evening in Holy Trinity church. Between 300 and 400 parishioners joined the society and after vespers and benediction last evening they were addressed by Very Rev. Monsignor J. J. Walsh. A very pleasing part of the impressive ceremony was the procession of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Rev. S. B. Howard, of Zion Methodist church, preached last night at Little River, East St. John. The services in Zion church were conducted by H. H. Stuart, of Sunny Brae.

Dr. Walcott, of Winchester (Mass.), preached at both services at the Central Baptist church yesterday. His subject in the morning was "The Mystery of Godliness" and in the evening "The Legacy of Peace."

William Mishaw, an American tourist, was held up on the Marsh Road yesterday morning about 10 o'clock by Constable Robert Crawford. He was taken before Magistrate Francis Rafferty at Coldbrook, charged with exceeding the speed limit, and was fined $10.

E. Clinton Brown of St. John, and Colonel J. D. B. F. MacKenzie of Chatham, are the representatives of the provincial organization at the annual meeting of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association, which opens this morning in Montreal.

The picnic and sports which were to be held at Fair Vale on Saturday were postponed for a week on account of the rain. The suburbanites at Fair Vale, however, consoled themselves with a dance in the evening at the club house. An orchestra from the city was in attendance and the dance proved to be a very enjoyable event.
