"We turn again and again to this Dictionary, with interest, with confidence, with respectful admiration of the labour, the learning, the judgment, the conscientiousness, and we again add, the courage it displays. Even where we differ from the writers, we do so with respect. We see throughout a conscientious love of truth, and an intelligent and successful endeavour to collect and present to us correctly the facts on which they report. We congratulate Dr. Smith on the success of his work."—Edinburgh Review.

A DICTIONARY OF CHRISTIAN ANTIQUITIES. Comprising the History, Institutions, and Antiquities of the Christian Church. By various writers. Edited by Wm. SMITH, D. C. L., and PROFESSOR CHEETHAM, M. A. With Illustrations. Vol. I. (To be completed in 2 vols.) Medium 8vo. 31s. 6d.

This work commences at the point at which the "Dictionary of the Bible" leaves off, and gives an account of the Institution of the Christian Church, from the time of the Apostles to the age of Charlemagne.

A DICTIONARY OF CHRISTIAN BIOGRAPHY, LITERATURE, SECTS, and Doctrines from the time of the Apostles to the age of Charlemagne. By various writers. Edited by Wm. SMITH, D. C. L., and REV. PROFESSOR WALKER, M. A. Vol. I. (To be completed in 2 vols.) Medium 8vo. 31s. 6d.

This work is designed to give a comprehensive account of the Personal, the Literary, the Dogmatic, and the Ecclesiastical Life of the Church during the first eight centuries of Christianity, and, in combination with the Dictionary of Christian Antiquities recently published, it will afford, it is believed, a most complete collection of materials for the Church History of that period, which has yet been published, either in English or any other language. It is especially biographical, and without claiming to afford a complete enumeration of the Christian world, an endeavour has been made to render available for research all the materials furnished in the great standard books of reference on this subject.
