

JAPS CAPTURE ANOTHER FORT WAS CARRIED BY DESPERATE ASSAULTS

The Russians Have Made a Number of Unsuccessful Attempts to Retake the Position.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—11.20 a.m.—A rumour of the Japanese advance is expected to occur at any time. It is the third week since the fighting at Liao Yang, and the Japanese have had time to transport reinforcements from Yinkow and bring up sufficient men to replace all their losses, but it is probable that several days will intervene before the armies come to close quarters.

While the field office advises do not indicate that the Japanese intend to make any further advance beyond the present position, they do not consider that the Japanese are not far from a decisive battle. The Japanese are feeling out the strength and disposition of the Russian forces, and Japanese flank attacks are already pressing northward. The reports that a battle at Mukden is imminent are, however, regarded as premature.

ENGLISH WOMAN RUNS THE BLOCKADE. Chefoo, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Anne Kravtchenko, the English wife of a Russian army officer, who arrived here the night of September 17th with Lieut. Primo Radzivil from Port Arthur...
