ECONOMY? A story comes down river today which illustrates the old proverb that the cleverest is not the one who earns much money, but he who saves it. A well-to-do citizen of Hampton had a carriage coming down river by the Star line and wished to have it taken from Indian town to Hampton. He enquired what the freight would be on the carriage and was told that it was a dollar and a half. Then he asked the cost of bringing his horse from Hampton to the city, and found it was one dollar. He decided to bring the horse in and haul the carriage to Hampton, thus wasting the greater part of a day in order to save the difference between the freight on the horse with his own fare added and the freight on the carriage.

"Almost every night there is a racket in the place, people talking loudly and shouting. On the windows facing the alleyway between the two houses there were no blinds, and through these windows he has seen disgraceful sights. Women of loose character frequent the place.

Mrs. Guthro was greatly shocked to hear such statements made concerning her house, and repeatedly called upon earth and heaven to prove her innocence. LIEUT.-COL. DENT

Coming to New Brunswick Next Month to Buy Horses.

The following letter speaks for itself:—CALGARY, N. W. T., 13 July, 1901, Hon. L. P. Farris, Commissioner for Agriculture, Fredericton:

Sir,—I purpose going to New Brunswick the latter part of August, dates to be hereafter fixed, to buy horses for the government as remounts for the army. I should be greatly obliged if you would inform me of the most likely places in New Brunswick to find horses and the names of men who would collect them for inspection. My time will be limited, and I can only visit two or three principal towns. The classes of horses I am buying are:—

Artillery horses, 15.1 to 15.2-2 hds., stout, blocky, active horses, quiet in harness.

Cavalry horses—15.1 to 15.2 hds., quiet to ride.

Infantry Cobs, 14.2-1-2 hds., quiet to ride.

Agcs 4 to 9 years old. No grey or collar marked horses will be accepted.

I will esteem it a favor if you will make my visit as widely known as you can, so that horses can be collected quickly when my dates are fixed. I am, sir,

Your obedient servant, H. S. DENT, Lieut.-Col. Remount Officer, Canada.

If parties having for sale horses answering the above description will notify the Department of Agriculture, Fredericton, at once, they will be put in communication with agents at the different points, which will likely be Woodstock, Fredericton, St. John, Moncton and Chatham.

L. P. FARRIS, Commissioner for Agriculture.

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT. The crowd which gathered at the foot of Garden street last night augurs well for the future success of the band concerts to be given at that place. In many respects the situation of the new band stand is more suitable than Hazell avenue. There is plenty of space for the promenaders, and those who wish to sit in a comparatively quiet corner have many opportunities for so doing. Nor need the city officials fear the destruction of half a dozen blades of grass, although its absence is felt by those who were in the habit of sitting down instead of keeping on the move. The only drawback to the place is the constant passing and repassing of teams, and when this is necessary drivers should exercise the greatest care in forcing their way through the crowd.

The music last evening was much enjoyed.

TRADE NOTES. American boot and shoe factories are running full time with orders booked for months ahead. The leather market is very firm.

Woolen mills in the States are more active than at any time before this year.
