The garden party held on the lawn at W. Willett's residence at Westfield last evening was a success. A good many were realized which will be given to the Methodist church fund.

The Marathons and Portlands will play a nine innings game on the Victoria grounds at 2.30 tomorrow, and at 4 p. m. the clerks of the Banks of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick will meet in a five innings game.

The Sussex Institute is arranging for a monster excursion to St. John on Tuesday, August 6th. Special arrangements are being made by a committee with the intercolonial authorities. The full particulars will be announced in next week's issue. The train should carry one of the largest crowds that has left Sussex on a similar occasion.—Sussex Record.

F. Shenton Thomas, son of F. S. Thomas, North End, who is on a visit home from Pittsburgh, is at present up river at his father's summer cottage at Brown's Flats. Mr. Thomas will return to Pittsburgh in a couple of weeks to resume his electrical work and study in the Westinghouse works.

R. B. Atkinson, chief fire warden for the county of Cumberland, upon information laid before him, caused the arrest of John Skidmore, son of Fred Skidmore, yesterday, charged with setting fires in the woods near his home at Oxford Junction. He was brought to Amherst last evening and lodged in jail to await examination before Justice Casey, which will take place in a few days. The fire did not do very much damage.—Amherst Telegram.

New Brunswick is going to have a record blueberry crop this year and everyone remarks on the uncommon size of the fruit by contrast with last season. The Sussex Packing Company are planning to can large quantities and the can shop is a busy place these days. They report the market good and sales made as far west as Alberta, ten cars in all. This quantity involves the use of over 155,000 cans and 120 tons of berries, so that the boys and girls will not want for work while it lasts. Berries will be shipped in from all over the province, as far west as St. George and north to Grand Anse.—Sussex Record.

THE MAYOR DID NOT ATTEND THE MEETING

The long expected and anxiously awaited meeting of the committee in charge of the Champlain Monument project was called for noon today. Six of the members of the committee were present in the mayor's office at the appointed hour, but the mayor and Senator Ellis, who were also members of the committee, the mayor being chairman, did not appear, and no business was proceeded with.

The members of the committee were quite disappointed at the non-appearance of the chairman, and hope to have the meeting next week. It is understood that his worship was enjoying a drive.

MR. MULLIN RETIRES.

Daniel Mullin, K. C., has found that he will be unable to participate in the tennis championships at Woodstock on Saturday evening. Dr. McIntosh has consented to take his place. The condition is that no one of the four players shall have ever held a tennis racket, and that no practicing in picking up balls may be indulged in. Jas. H. Doody fears that the contestants might break it if they attempt to stoop. Stephen McAvity, who plays with Alex. Macaulay against Mr. Doody and Dr. McIntosh, claims to be the only athlete in the party, basing his claim on the fact that he once successfully turned a hind spring.

TIPPLER, July 26.—Colonel Dobrowsky, commander of the 21st Infantry, was shot and killed yesterday by a soldier of his own regiment who is an ex-soldier of the mutinous battleship Villula. The assassin fired three times from a rifle.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., July 26.—The United Verde smelter at Jerome, Ariz., is closed down. Reports from there are to the effect that the smelting is only temporary, but considerable uneasiness is felt as the smelter is built over underground workings of a great copper deposit. Fear is expressed that the plant may fall through. It has been sinking more or less during the past five years.

DR. BAYARD HONORED

BY EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY

St. John's Veteran Physician Receives Degree From His Alma Mater.

Dr. William Bayard, who has been practicing his profession in this city for seventy years, and is now, at the age of ninety-three, still active, will today receive the degree of Doctor of Laws from his alma-mater, the University of Edinburgh.

DR. WILLIAM BAYARD.

A Star reporter who visited Dr. Bayard this morning was ushered into his office where the aged physician was engaged in writing. He appeared very bright and keenly alive to the subjects discussed.

Although he has almost given up the active practice of his profession, Dr. Bayard still retains a number of his patients, and only a few weeks ago performed an operation, being assisted by a fellow practitioner who administered the anæsthetic.

Dr. Bayard's right hand is still as supple as ever, but the left member is slightly paralyzed, and he will in future give up operations as he says a surgeon needs the use of both hands. Dr. Bayard is still able to walk about, although he seldom is seen on the street, and does not need a cane or any other assistance. Apart from the slight paralysis in his hand Dr. Bayard says he is feeling in the best of health, and it is the hope of all that he will live many years in the city where his good works are so well known and appreciated.

LADIES DEFENDER

CAUGHT THE HUGGER

North End Fireman Thrashed a Man Who Has Been Insulting Ladies on the Street.

The ladies of the northern end of the city have a handsome member of the Fire Department to thank for the ridance of that undesirable character known as "The Hugger," who has been carrying on his squalid operations in secluded quarters of the public thoroughfares for the last week or so. Last night about a quarter to eleven o'clock somebody informed this gentleman that "The Hugger" had grabbed at several women on the raised roadway leading to Fort Howe. The big, burly fireman made a personal investigation and found such to be the case. Without calling the police or running the risk of a fizzle in the police court, he walked up and gave Mr. Hugger a sound thrashing, until the momentary plea for mercy and offered to buy him off in currency of the realm. A small crowd collected, and when his chastener asked them what further he would do to the man, they advised that he give him one or two more for luck and let him go. He did so. That is the whole story.

SENT CUFF LINKS TO THE

KENNWOOD'S CREW

Yachtsmen Who Were on the Sinking Lalla Rookh Show Their Gratitude to Rescuers

In recognition of the promptitude and coolness displayed by the crew of the Lalla Rookh which was sunk above Westfield a couple of weeks ago, the men who were saved have sent gold cuff-links to each of the rescuers. The initials of the recipients are engraved on each pair of links, which also bear the date July 13, 1906, and the letters L. R. of the sunken yacht. Letters of appreciation of the assistance rendered were also sent. The Kennwood's crew who are naturally pleased with this action on the part of their friends, though considering that they themselves did nothing to deserve it, consisted of Lawrence Allen, (captain), Thomas Ledingham, Robert Ledingham and Albert Linton. The Lalla Rookh's crew were Dr. Will Warwick, (captain), George Warwick, George Ewing, James Powrie and David Ledingham.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION.

DROPPED THE CASE

AGAINST DR. SPANGLER

The case preferred against Dr. Spangler by Dr. Stewart S. Skinner, the provincial registrar, for practising medicine without registration, was resumed in the police court this morning before Magistrate Ritchie. Messrs. Hazen, Powell and Harrison appeared for the defendant and Recorder C. N. Skinner for the prosecution.

When the recorder was asked by the magistrate to proceed with the case Mr. Skinner arose and stated that he did not wish to go on any further with the case.

"That means that the case is withdrawn," said Mr. Hazen.

"With costs," said Mr. Powell. Dr. Spangler with about eight or nine prominent citizens and sympathizers then left the court, all with smiles on their faces and what was expected to have taken up considerable time lasted only about as few seconds as it takes a boxer to be counted out.
