AMNESTY FOR
MANY PERSIANS
IS GRANTED

Number of Reactionaries However Are Excluded—Fifteen Are Now Refugees in Foreign Legations.

DOES NOT BELIEVE IN BRITISH SINCERITY

Tehran, Sept. 3.—General amnesty has been proclaimed, but a large number of reactionaries have been excluded from its benefits. Mushir-es-Sultaneh, former premier and minister of the interior, and Saad-od-Dowleh, ex-minister to Brussels, an uncle of the ex-shah and Hadji Ismail, director of the mint, fifteen men all told, have been sentenced to exile for life. These men are now refugees at the Turkish and Russian legations; they were neither present nor defended at the trials at which they were convicted.

Due To Intrigues.
In an interview with the deposed shah of Persia, who is now a refugee at the Russian legation at Zermende, the former ruler of the empire complained that his abdication was due to intrigue and treachery, hinting broadly at Russian and British diplomacy.
"I came here," the ex-shah continued, "as I was given to understand that this step would save the throne, appease the people, and prevent bloodshed. I sent a telegram to the emperor of Russia bespeaking his intercession between my people. He was willing to comply with the demands presented by the representatives of my people. To my surprise I found myself almost a prisoner here and soon I was told that my abdication had been accepted. If I had remained another day at my residence at Bagehah events would have taken a different turn." In conclusion, the former sovereign of Persia said he would prefer to wander through Persia as a simple Dervish than be expropriated.

JAPAN'S ATTITUDE IS CONDEMNED BY PEKIN

Self Government Society in Meeting Vigorously Protest Against Tokio's Manchurian Propaganda.

Canton, Sept. 3.—The Self-Government Society at a meeting yesterday vigorously condemned Japan's attitude in Manchuria and accused her of nefariously attempting to gain a predominant influence with the object of depriving China of her sovereign rights.
The meeting decided that this attitude of aggression was a menace to China's integrity and must be protested against by a revival of the boycott. Telegrams have been sent throughout the world urging Chinese to join in boycotting Japanese products.
The situation in regard to the Macao boundary is becoming acute. A boycott of the colony has commenced, and Chinese in the Heungshan district are raising volunteer militia on the ground that it is necessary to defend their homes against an alleged Portuguese invasion. The delimitating commission has not yet arrived at any agreement and is expected to sit another month.

NEWS OF A DAY

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 3.—Stanley Scallies, a young farmer of Sydney, was killed yesterday while out duck hunting. He was in the act of stepping into a boat when his gun was accidentally discharged, the contents entering his right lung. Scallies leaves a widow and one child.

Vancouver, Sept. 3.—Junchi Abo, a Jap, lies in the General Hospital at the point of death, the result of a duel fought with another Jap in the neighborhood of Steveston. He is suffering from bullet wounds in the side, liver, legs and hands. His assailant is still at large.

Toronto, Sept. 3.—C. F. Willard, New York, last night made a trial flight in the Curtiss aeroplane Golden Flier, off Scarborough Beach. When 200 yards from shore the aeroplane tipped, throwing Willard into the lake from a height of about 30 feet. The machine fell into the lake too. Both were rescued. Willard was unhurt.
The propeller of the machine and some of the framework were broken, but can be repaired within two days.

Hamilton, Sept. 3.—That T. L. Kinrade does not intend to return to this city seems evident from a letter received from him by the management committee of the Board of Education, containing his resignation. The letter was written from New York. Kinrade thinks the board for its courtesy to him during the 34 years he was in its employ. Some members of the board state that he had not applied for his position. Mr. Kinrade, however, is not in the employ of the board and therefore could not resign a position he did not hold.

In The Police Court.
In the police court yesterday Michael Weazel, a Hebrew, appeared in answer to a report that he had been buying and selling junk without a license. He claimed that he was acting as an agent for Benjamin Garson, who was unable to speak or understand English. There was considerable argument as to the way the license was obtained and the case was adjourned until Tuesday. Louis Jones, adversely affected by the hearing, was charged by William Bell with using abusive language, was remanded. Joseph McIlhenny, charged with breaking seals on an I. C. R. freight car, was committed for trial.

CHINA MUST

Great Britain's Minister Demands Reparation from Pekin for Mr. Clark's Surveyor's Murder.

MURDERED MAN
AN INDIAN SURVEYOR

Pekin, Sept. 3.—Sir John Jordan, the British Minister to China, without waiting for the co-operation of the American Legation, today called on the Foreign Board and demanded reparation and punishment for the killing last June in Kansu Province, of Haz-rah Ali, a British subject. Ali was an Indian surveyor attached to the meteorological expedition taken into China by Lieutenant R. S. Clark, formerly an officer of the American army. He was set upon by Chinese and killed.

Investigation Ordered.
Sir John informed the government that the investigation of the occurrence must be made. The government demurred, but the Minister was firm. In return China asked for reparation for the Chinese killed in the encounter with the members of the expedition.
Mr. Henry P. Fletcher, the American Charge d'Affaires, will take independent action. The apparent lack of cooperation between the British and American legations is due to divergent views in the matter of China's responsibility. Mr. Fletcher, however, has given assurances that he will support the British action.

RUSSIA IS LENIENT TO FORMER POLICE HEAD

Lapukin Exiled, But His Family
May Go To Siberia With Him
—Sentenced to Five Years' Imprisonment.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3.—The Minister of the Interior has selected Krasnoyarsk, Siberia, as the place of exile for Alexander Lopukine, the chief of the Russian police department, who was recently found guilty of being a member of the revolutionary organization and sentenced to five years' imprisonment at hard labor.
The conditions of Lopukine's exile, however, have been mitigated. The Lopukine family will be allowed to bring its household furniture and the library from St. Petersburg.
Lopukine, accompanied by his wife and brother-in-law, Prince Russov, is now on his way to Krasnoyarsk. He will be joined later by his daughter.

GREEK PRINCES ASK FOR LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Give Up Military Duties to Study Abroad—The Crown Prince Goes On Half Pay—Army Reorganization.

Athens, Sept. 3.—It appears that the Crown Prince, Constantine, in Chief of the Army, and Prince Nicholas, Inspector General of Artillery, have asked to be placed on half pay.
Prince Andrew, who is captain of cavalry, and Prince Christos, the sub-lieutenant of infantry, have asked for long leaves, with permission to go abroad.
Prince George, the heir presumptive to the throne, will also ask for two years' leave, in order to continue his studies in Germany.
General Smolenski's name is mentioned as that of the commander in chief until the post is suppressed by the Chamber.

Denies Statement.
M. Mavromichaelis, the Premier, denies the statement that officers are exercising the right of veto upon government acts. The government, he says, is acting with perfect liberty and is trying its programme in conformity with the popular wishes as drawn up before the military movement.

The news that the Crown Prince also, as well as Prince Nicholas, had requested to be placed on half pay reached the newspapers last night.
In conversing Lieutenant Colonel Laridis, one of the best officers in the Greek army, and who yesterday took the oath as the Minister of War, said to the New York Herald correspondent:

Grave Responsibility.
"I am assuming a grave responsibility in reorganizing the army on a more solid basis."
To the question whether the Crown Prince and four other princes had asked to be placed on half pay or had asked for leave he replied:
"It is probable that such a decision was discussed between the 'princes', but there is always a distance between intention and execution. One must wait."

As for the changes which must be made in the different commands, the Minister declared that nothing had yet been decided, for he had not had time to occupy himself with the matter.

TORTURES IN

Spain With the Other Powers Signs a Protest to the Sultan Mulay Hafid—The Excuse of His Envoy.

PENALTIES INFLICTED OF RELIGIOUS NATURE

Madrid, Sept. 2.—Senor Maura, the Premier, yesterday declared to the Madrid newspaper correspondents that Spain had signed a collective note to the powers against Mulay Hafid's cruelties to his prisoners in Fez.
According to Mulay Hafid's envoy in Madrid, the tortures inflicted in Morocco have a religious character which non-Mohammedans are unable to understand and are perfectly just and in accordance with the tenets of the faith. The Sultan, however, he says, will consider the European point of view and suspend the acts which have caused the protest.

The conference this afternoon between Mulay Hafid's envoys and Senor Alendalazar, the Foreign Minister, was very satisfactory to Spain, according to a semi-official note. The negotiations, however, will continue for some time. Senor Maura this evening stated that the victory at Moco El Alpha is the first of a series of military operations planned for the punishment of the Rifians.

LORD DECLIFFORD IS KILLED IN ACCIDENT

His Automobile Turns Turtle After a Collision With Another Car Near Brighton—An Enthusiastic Automobilist

London, Sept. 3.—Jack Southwell Russell, Lord de Cliford, was killed in an automobile accident yesterday at Bamber, near Brighton. His car was in collision with another vehicle and turned over on its side. Lord de Cliford was killed instantly.

Lord de Cliford was born July 2, 1884, and came into possession of the title in 1894. The title was originated in 1299. The first Lord de Cliford was killed at the battle of Bannockburn.

Lord de Cliford married February 16, 1906, under a special license, Miss Evelyn Carrington, at St. Pancras Registry, and the religious ceremony took place several days later at St. Margaret's Church, Westminster. The honeymoon was spent in Paris and Abyssinia. Miss Carrington, at the time of her marriage was playing a part in "Bluebell in Fairyland," and previous to that had been one of the "Hibson Girls" in the "Catch of the Season."

The estate to which Lord de Clifford left heir with the title consists of 13,000 acres situated in County Mayo, Ireland. The couple had spent much of their time touring Europe in an automobile. Lord de Cliford was an enthusiastic automobilist but was always considered a careful driver.

SULTAN OF TURKEY
OFF ON INITIAL TOUR

Constantinople, Sept. 3.—The Sultan of Turkey left Constantinople at daybreak today on the imperial yacht for Bursa, Asia Minor. He is accompanied by the heir apparent, the princes and the Grand vizier, and will spend three days in the first capital of the Ottoman Empire, where great preparations have been made to celebrate befittingly the occasion.

Later the Sultan will go to Gallipoli to visit the tomb of his ancestor, the conqueror of Roumelia.

PRESENTS GIFT FROM
PORTUGUESE QUEEN

Madrid, Sept. 3.—Conde San Luis, Spanish minister at Lisbon, arrived here. He stopped yesterday at Salamanca to deliver to the city a specific cup offered by Queen Amelia as a prize for the poetic competition which is about to be held there. It is stated the object of the countess's trip to Madrid is to make arrangements for a visit by King Emanuel.

PROBATE COURT.

In the probate court yesterday in the estate of Samuel Weil, grocer, the will was proved. The deceased, after making some small specific legacies, gives the rest of his estate to his wife, Harriet, whom he nominates as executrix, and who is sworn in as such. There is no real estate, personal property under $1,000; J. Mac-Millan Treuman, proctor.

In the estate of William Warner, laborer, the widow was given administration. Decedent died intestate, leaving his widow, Catherine, and six children. There is no real estate; personal property, consisting of lease-hold, $350; J. H. A. L. Fairweather, proctor.

In the estate of Mary Elizabeth Hayward, of the Parish of St. Martins, more recently of the City of St.
John, widow of William Hayward, of Sussex, mill owner. The will was proved. The deceased gave an unimproved tract of land on the Canaan River, in the Parish of Salisbury, Westmorland County, to Grace P.
Hayden, wife of Leonard P. Hayden.
The rest of her property she gives
