The first of a series of evening races and proved most successful. Two races were run off and the finish in each was close, that in the speed

The wharves along the harbor front were filled with people and a large number of boats were out. The course which had to be gone over twice was five miles in length, and good time was made in both classes. The starting was in the form of a public wharf, around a buoy off the big mill, then around a buoy off Baker's mill, then down the western shore and around a buoy at the head of the falls and finish at the starting point.
The entries in the speed class were "Flyaway" owned by E. Harrington, and Victory, owned by Harry Baker. In the semi-speed class L. owned by John Prodham; Malken, owned by S. Harrison, and Thelma, owned by C. H. Belyea.

Herrmann Files Answer
Cleveland, Ohio, July 18.—August Herrmann, Chairman of the National Baseball Commission, in common court here, today, filed his answer to the suit of the Philadelphia American League baseball club against members of the commission and the Boston National League club to restrain them from interfering with the services of Pitcher Scott Perry.

In his answer, which was brief, Hermann says the commission was created for the purpose of settling baseball disputes and other controversies and contends that the majority of the commission members awarded title to Perry to the Boston club. He states that all ruling of the commission in such matters have been considered final and makes no further answer.

"IT IS FOR FRANCE"

The Prevailing Sentiment At Yesterday's Entertainment Given For the French Red Cross Was Enthusiasm and Joy Over French Successes.

The place that France holds in the hearts of everyone was well evidenced yesterday by the large audiences which filled the Imperial theatre, and the enthusiastic applause which greeted the pictures and national song of the gallant country so bravely defending her rights. The good news of the French successes was welcomed with joy as it was given out from the platform, and the audience rose in respect for the Marcelline as it was sung and played throughout the programme.
Opening with the impressive strains of the French national song followed by God Save the King, some beautiful colored views of typical French scenery were shown. These were devoted by The Specialty Film Import through the kindness of the general manager, L. E. Outmet, of Montreal.
Next came the Ford series of our own Canadian boys in training for the aviation corps near Toronto, views which received well merited applause were pictures of Miss Agnes Warner and the hospital in France where she has given her services. The Vitagraph feature "For France," is a very stirring story of a Franco-American love affair, and brings in the British, French and American spirit de corps.
The types are splendidly chosen, the scenery fine and the acting excellent.
Miss Pauline Saint recited with deep feeling the lines "To the Greatest Mother in the World," which described the tableau following.
Mrs. Anglin, trying the Red Cross, with a wounded child in her arms (Master Brown) made a very beautiful picture, and one that will remain long in the memory. Miss Kathleen Galtvan sang the Marcelline with fine dramatic feeling and was loudly cheered. Miss Phyllis Gilmore and Mr. Haley gave their act which was much enjoyed, and the offer of their services was deeply appreciated by the committee in charge.
Appropriate music was well rendered by the Imperial orchestra.
The committee in charge of the entertainment were Mrs. H. Lawrence, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Miss Edith Skinner, Mrs. Heber Vroom. W. H. Golding made the announcements and the Imperial staff nevertheless in their power.
Mr. W. C. McKay, of the Opera House, allowed members of the Y. W.
P. A. to collect at the Opera House.
Members of the various Red Cross circles attired as nurses sold tickets at the door and on the street. The Y. W. P. A. ushers wore the Red Cross costume at the evening performance.
Donations were received by the secretary, From the Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. O. F., $50; Y. W. P. A., $25; a friend, $2. A member contributed by a Y. W. P. A. member

The Y. W. P. A. strawberry pickers at Upper Sackville have had their which is the record for one day, and say, "but there is too much fun going on to settle down to writing. We work hard and were never so stiff time, and my aren't we hungry for supper! The cook and the cookees have to work hard to get enough ready for us. Thursday was raining

Y. W. P. A. STRAWBERRY
PICKERS PLAN CONCERT

The Y. W. P. A. strawberry pickers
at Upper Sackville have had their share of rainy weather, but their spirits are not dampened. The star pickers has handed in a total of 114 boxes which is the record for one day, and 104 boxes were filled by another energetic worker.
"We meant to write letters," they
and sore, but we are having a great
so hard that we knocked off in the middle of the afternoon." For Friday a concert is planned at which Miss Desjardis and Miss Emmeline Climo will sing, the Misses Gibbon will recite, and some lovely choruses will be rendered by the bunch. It will be held in the Methodist church of Upper Sackville and the proceeds will be divided between the Y. W. P.
A. and the local Red Cross Society.
