2.25 Class.

2.26 Class. First heat-Guy J. drew the pole, Brilliant second, Rex third, Cassimira fourth, Sunol Prince 5th. After scoring a few times they got a fair start, Cassimira taking the lead in the back stretch, leading at the quarter with the others well up, passing the half with Rex fighting for first place, and it was a race to the finish with them all, Sunol Prince coming in ahead, but was placed back for running in the first half. Time-2.28%. Second heat-They got away in good order, Cassimira leading at the turn with Sunol next, followel by Rex, Brilliant and Guy J. passing the quarter in this order and the same to the half, from there to the three-guarter Rex passed Sunol and finished with Cassimira fourth and Guy J. fifth. Time-2.25%.

 matched, Cone handling Keno well and although Kwanon finished slightly in the lead Keno was awarded the heat on account of his opponent breaking. Time-37½, 1.44½, 1.50½, 2.2444.
 The second heat of the '27 class begun with Lumps at the pole and a good start. The three leaders were well bunched, Arden a nose ahead of Lumps. At the half on the back stretch Barbadoes took the pole, passing Arden and Lumps, the latter two breaking. At the three-quarters Lumps started after the leader and made a hot brush up the home stretch. Barbadoes winning the heat. Time-39½, 1.16, 1.52%, 2.30.
 The second heat of the free-for-all sent off Keno slightly in the lead, but was passed by luna at the first quarter, the mare continuing the heat. Time-6, 1.10, 1.46, 2.23½.
 The third heat in the '27 class resulted in another hot race between Lumps and Barbadoes but, although finishing very close the mare was content with second position. Time-2.30.
 The third heat in the free-for-all was brought on with J. M. Johnson behind Kwanon, with the result that although he broke twice, he came in so far ahead that the judges decided in nis favor. Time-34%, 1.10, 1.47½, 2.23.
 The tourth heat in the '27 class again showed a hot contest between Barbadoes and Lumps, Arden coming in the charmed circle on the last half and passing Lumps, entering the heat as well as winning the race. Time-2.23%.
 Tump sgot second money. Arden third and fourth money was divided between Turtix and Maud.
 The fourth heat in the free-for-all made a change in the contest as wenning the race. Time-2.23%.
 Tumps got second money. Arden third and fourth money was divided between Turtix and Maud.
 The fourth heat in the free-for-all made a change in the contestants, Ituna at once going to the front which she maintained until the finish. McGregor was second, Kwanon and Keno appearing to lose interest in the event. Time-30%, 1.11, 1.47, 2.24.
