A collision occurred yesterday between two railway trains, near Carlisle, by which several persons were killed and injured.

WAPELLO, IOWA, Sept. 26. A BALLOONIST FALLS TO THE EARTH AND IS DRIVEN INTO THE GROUND. Prof. Bailey had advertised that he would make an ascension in a balloon today, and drew a large crowd to the fair grounds. The balloon was inflated with hot air and left the ground, Bailey hanging by his hands to all horizontal bar beneath. Just as it started it took fire near the manule and Bailey did not apparently notice the fire until too late to let go with safety, but hung on until he had reached an altitude of 1,200 or 1,500 feet when the canvas burned that held the hoop from which he was hanging, and he fell, reaching the earth a quarter of a mile from the point of starting. His body was fright fully mangled and his legs were driven into the ground up to his knees.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26. GRAND TOURNEY OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR. The grand Tourney of Knights Templar at the Academy of Music was a complete success. It is estimated that at from ten to twelve thousand people were present. The exhibition only was held in both halls until ten o'clock, when danccommenced. Broad street was illuted by calcium lights placed on the onies of both halls. The exhibition balconies of both halls. The exhibition n the vestibule of the Academy consisted of a picture of the new Temple in mosaic with mother of pearl. In an hour after the doors were opened both halls were filled. The bugle sounded at half-past 8 o'clock. The curtain rose and the Knights, fully equipped appeared on the stage, presenting a grand spectacle from the floor. The grand officers entered and reviewed the line. The Commandaries broke in three; filed past through a connecting passage inio Horticultural Hall. 21002 (Special to Daily News.) The Royal Commission.

White, of the Montreal Gazette, gave evidence to-day before the Commission. He gave unqualified denial to McMullen's statement that he (witness) had been bribed to support Sir Hugh Allan's Railway Schemes. When the Messrs. White were completing the purchase of the Gazette establishment from Sir Hugh Allan and Brydges; Abbott suggested that for the advancement of the Northern Colonization road and other enterprises White refused this, and paid the full amount agreed upon. Before the documents were signed Sir Hugh Allan, before leaving for England, demanded a higher rate of interest for the balance due. White consented, and the transfer was completed. Instead of receiving any favor from Allan the exact contrary was the case, and McMullen's statement wholly false. Witness took part in the Montreal elections. Large sums he said, were spent on both sides, especially for regular canvassers. On election day a large number of Cartier's paid canvassers were found working hard for the Opposition. Witness heard that B. Ik du Peuple OTTAWA, Sept. 26. ere found working hard for the Opposi-on. Witness heard that Barik du Peuple alone raised $25,000 for Jette.

By request of Sir John, Langevin was recalled and stated that both sides spent more money at the last election than on previous elections. He knew several Mi-nisterial candidates who were defeated, nisterial candidates who were deteated, owing to Opposition spending enormous sums. Witness had been told by Couchon that he (Cauchon) spent $15,000 in Quebec Centre election. Both candidates were friendly to the Government, consequently the Government remained perfectly neutral. No money received by Langevin from Montreal was spent in Quebec Centre.

OTTAWA, Sept. 27. White's evidence yesterday completely demolished more of McMullen's statements, the only portion of his case not manufactured out of the Allan letters and the stolen papers and telegrams. To-day will probably be spent reading Abbott's deposition, when the Commission may adjourn for two weeks so that an opportunity may be given for receiving any further testimony.
