

increased
with and
of Me-
tionship
discipline
uls, we nd that
words
ur mis-
oliness
rust so
essing,
great

inter-
taken
Bodies
day is d and
And
isters
es of f one
time
there
tion,
proy
ving
antic
ave
pint-
tion
om-
alar

Education upon Christian principles, and especially the value of an educated ministry, in the zealous efforts you have put forth for the accomplishment of those objects, you will rejoice in our success in a similar department of Christian work. Upwards of Eighty Thousand Dollars have been subscribed toward the Endowment of the University of Victoria College, and of that amount more than Forty Thousand Dollars have been paid and invested. The College is annually sending forth numbers of young men, second to the Graduates of no other; and who, with cultivated intellects and, in many instances, sanctified hearts, must exert a salutary influence upon their country's future.

The Wesleyan Female College continues to enjoy a large measure of public confidence and support. If the moral and religious training of the families of the Dominion form its character—and if the mother's influence forms the character of the family—we cannot place too high an estimate upon the value of the work of the sister Institutions of the two Conferences—yours in Sackville, and ours in Hamilton. To know that the labours of the Rev. John Burwash, M. A., meet with your hearty approval, gives us no surprise, and we cordially accede to the request of the College Board, that his appointment be continued for another year.

Our record for the past year contains much that is encouraging. With the rapid growth of Agriculture, Manufactures and Commerce, our people are increasing in wealth and liberality; and, consequently, we enjoy as a Church a large measure of temporal prosperity. Churches and